Thank You

Thank you everyone for a wonderful reception! Mokey and The Ruth Circle did a beautiful job with the presentation and delicious food! A special thank you to Kay, Becky, Carroll, Betsy, Mokey, Mary and Elaine. Especially James, who knew to prepare hot tea for me, along with his homemade cookies. A big shout out to Teresa Jones for making 100 scones for everyone to enjoy! Thank you to everyone in whatever capacity you contributed to make that day so enjoyable for me! I truly appreciated all the cards, gifts, and gift cards. It was so nice to see everyone again and thanks to those of you who took the time to reminisce and talk with me. That is what I will treasure the most!

All My Love, Paula

Ruth Circle Fall Bake Sale Today

IT'S HERE!! The Ruth Circle Fall Bake Sale is located in the hallway by the Sunday School classrooms. We are serving during the 8:00 a.m. and the 10:30 a.m. service times.

Come by and select from a delicious array of homemade cakes, pies, cookies, candies, muffins, and more. Our proceeds support Ruth Circle missions: Selected ministries within our Forest Park Church, and The Salvation Army Women's Domestic Violence Program, equally. So, come and get some delicious goodies to enjoy and at the same time you'll be helping us support our Ruth Circle missions - it's a win/win situation! As always, we are appreciative of donations of baked goods to sell and monetary gifts, as well. Hope to see you at the Bake Sale!!

If you are missing a platter, container, serving dish, etc. that you may have left here from a previous event, please check out what's on the counter in the kitchen, If anything belongs to you, please take it home.

Congratulations to Maggi LeClair on the birth of her first great-grandchild, Atlas James Alley, born on October 13, 2025 and weighing 8lbs 90zs.
