Weaver's Writings:

Does God Still Speak?

Many people today claim to hear God's voice in dreams, feelings, or mysterious signs. Others wonder if God ever speaks at all anymore. The Bible gives us a clear and comforting answer: Yes, God still speaks, but not in the same way He once did.

In the past, God spoke directly to people through prophets, visions, and angels (Hebrews 1:1). But that same passage continues, saying, "in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son" (Hebrews 1:2). Today, God's message comes through Jesus Christ, the One who revealed the heart and will of God perfectly.

How do we hear the voice of Jesus today? Through His word, the Bible. The Scriptures are "God-breathed" (2 Timothy 3:16) and provide "everything we need for life and godliness" (2 Peter 1:3). When we open our Bibles, we are not just reading ancient words, we are hearing the living voice of God! The Holy Spirit continues to work through that word by guiding, convicting, and comforting the hearts of believers (Ephesians 6:17; John 16:13). But He does so through the revealed message, not new revelations. God's word is complete, unchanging, and powerful (Hebrews 4:12).

So, does God still speak? Absolutely. But we must listen in the right place, not in our feelings or the opinions of others. But instead, in the inspired, unchanging word of God.

"Therefore we must pay much closer attention to what we have heard, lest we drift away from it." —Hebrews 2:1

Are you listening to God daily by reading His word? His voice is clear for those who open their hearts and Bibles to hear Him.
