Today's lessons:

Joel 2:23-32

God promises his people that with a bountiful harvest he will make good for the years when Israel was plagued by locusts. But not just food will be plenty,— the blessings of the Spirit will too.

Psalm 65

Praise to God who once created the earth, and keeps it working so that there is a harvest!

2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18

The Apostle Paul shares his old-age perspective with young Timothy: what is important in the end, is to keep the faith.

Luke 18:9-14

Jesus tells a parable about how two very different people approach God, one proud of his own religious accomplishments, one ashamed of his sinfulness.

Pharisee or Sinner?!

In our Gospel today, Jesus has a message for a special — or maybe not so special — group of people:

A most watery psalm

A lot of water is needed to make a good harvest, and you have to find a lot of water-words before the remaining letters let you see the hidden message.

JOEL'S MESSAGE

The day will come, when Joel and other prophets will no longer be alone with their special knowledge about God's plans. Do you have knowledge and spirit enough to unscramble this message?
