

"The Irrevocables" – Romans 11:1,2a; 29-32

Pastor Raoul Robles – Sunday, June 22, 2025

Whoever said, "Some things never change," didn't live in our society.

A PEOPLE OF MISSIONS

An irrevocable:

For those who follow God, _____.

To be a non-missional Christian is to become a _____ of _____.

A PEOPLE OF MERCY

An irrevocable: Despite our disobedience, God still offers

His _____ and _____.

The heart that gives mercy in response to disobedience is a:

-Heart of _____.

-Heart that desires _____ over _____.

-Heart that looks to the _____ and closes the door on the _____.

Godly sorrow is something we should _____,
_____ in our lives, and _____.

Questions for Further Discussion:

(Great for Life Groups, family devotionals, or with a friend)

1. Agree/Disagree: Not to follow God's design for evangelism and ministry to others is disobedient. Why/Why not?
2. Pope John Paul once said that humanity has lost its sense of shame. How is that demonstrated in our society today?
3. Do you think Christians tend to be more merciful to non-Christians than to their brothers and sisters in the faith?