Questions for Further Discussion:

(Great for Life Groups, family devotionals, or with a friend)

1. What moves you to worship God? Is it gratitude for His blessings in your life? Is it nearness to His presence? Is it being in the sanctuary with other worshipers? Something else?
2. Have you ever struggled with a feeling of inauthentic worship because your "heart wasn't in it"? How can you still choose to worship in those times? How could engaging in the worship physically help?
3. Do you sometimes feel that being productive for the kingdom is more important than worship? What causes you to think that way? How can your service be worshipful?
4. This psalm can be summed up by saying, "Bless the Lord and the Lord bless you." Spend some time considering his many blessings. Then consider how you might respond by praising him today and this week.
