Questions for Further Discussion:

(Great for Life Groups, family devotionals, or with a friend)

1. If obedience to God is about hearing him and then aligning with him in submission to his authority, how do we do that? How do we hear him well? How do we align and submit?
2. What role does looking back play in helping us stay on the right path? How do stories of faithfulness help us stay faithful? How do stories of failures?
3. How do God's promises help keep us on the right path? Which promises specifically do you find most hopeful? What impact do they have on how you live?
4. What are some of your favorite stories of God's faithfulness from scripture? Why? Who could you share them with?
5. What are some of your favorite stories of God's faithfulness from your own life? Why? Who could you share them with?
