A Blessing

May the hand of God be always on your shoulders.
And may your blessing be abundant too.
We will pray that you will always feel God's presence.
And face each day with joy and strength renewed.

And if you find your world beset by sorrow.
Then know that we are friends who'll stand by you.
We will ask our God to keep our hearts united.
And hope your troubles are but only few.

So we thank our God, our maker and redeemer.
For the sunlit day that brought you to our door.
We will cherish ev'ry step along life's journey.
And pray the bonds of friendship will endure.

L. Lewis
Copyright © Jan 2022
This music can be listened to here:
https://www.youtube.com/@lynleylewismusic