The Collects for Trinity 20:

O ALMIGHTY and most merciful God, of thy bountiful goodness keep us, we beseech thee, from all things that may hurt us; that we, being ready both in body and soul, may cheerfully accomplish those things that thou wouldest have done; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Almighty God, who hast knit together thine elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of thy Son Christ our Lord: Grant us grace so to follow thy blessed Saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those unspeakable joys, which thou hast prepared for them that unfeignedly love thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Introit Psalm

Everything that thou hast brought upon us, O Lord God, Thou hast done in righteousness and judgement: For we have trespassed against thee, and have not obeyed thy commandments; but give glory and honour to thy Name, and deal with us according to the multitude of thy tender mercies. Great is the lord, and highly to be praised: in the city of our God, Even upon his holy hill. Glory be.. and to the Holy Ghost. As it was... and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

 "Drawing the Line Between Heresy and Orthodoxy". All are welcome!

Rectors Corner Yesterday, the Church began the great Feast of

All Saints. "Saint" means "holy one". It's not that we are holy on our own merits – not at all. We are considered as holy ones only because of what God has done for us through His Son, Jesus Christ. It is Christ's precious Blood that has cleansed us.

The Feast of All Saints reminds us that we are not alone. The Scripture says that we are "compassed about with a great cloud of witnesses". (Hebrews 12.1) We are surrounded by the people of God who have departed this world, but who are alive in Christ. This should give us comfort and hope. We are not alone. With them, we have been adopted into the family of God and made members of Christ. We have received an inheritance of the Kingdom of Heaven – imagine that!

And so there is this opportunity very year, from November 1st to 8th, to remember the faithful departed – all the saints. Among them we may give thanks for our own loved ones who have been examples to us in the Faith and pointed us to the Lord Jesus Christ.

As Carolyn and I leave the Parish of the Six Saints, be sure of our prayers. Thank you for last Sunday. It was a very humbling afternoon. Thank you for coming, and for all your work in making it happen. And, thank you for your very kind and generous gifts to us. Truly, there are not words enough to express our gratitude for all that you have done.

As the Parish moves into a time of transition, please remember Fr. Rob in your prayers. I am grateful for his leadership. Also, please pray for the Clergy Team as they continue their faithful service. Finally, please remember the Parish Advisory Committee in your prayers as they work with the Archbishop and Archdeacon Ham in discerning the Lord's will regarding a second priest.

Moving forward, please note that Sunday Services, Bible Studies, and Nursing Home Services will continue as usual, with one exception: there will be no Morning Prayer at 9:15 am on Sundays at St. George's; and Morning Prayer only will be prayer/livestreamed Monday to Friday at 8:30 a.m. in St. George's Chapel. Blessings in Christ Jesus to you all.
