Minister's Message

Therefore, brothers and sisters, since we have confidence to enter the Most Holy Place by the blood of Jesus, by a new and living way opened for us through the curtain, that is, his body, and since we have a great priest over the house of God, let us draw near to God with a sincere heart and with the full assurance that faith brings, having our hearts sprinkled to cleanse us from a guilty conscience and having our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold unswervingly to the hope we profess, for he who promised is faithful. And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds, not giving up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching

- Hebrews 10:19-25

Siblings in Christ,

The writer of the Letter to the Hebrews encourages the churches by reminding them of two things. First, through Jesus Christ they have gained entry into the sacrificial and religious system of Judaism: they have become part of the family of God. Second, although the language of devotion is worship through prayer, ritual, and sacrifice, the primary responsibility of God's people is to honour God by treating God's people and God's world with love, justice, and mercy.

For that reason, I want to give thanks for the faithful way you are with one another. You can laugh and joke with each other; you can be tender with each other; when you have differing perspectives you raise them openly and respectfully instead of letting them fester.

I am especially thinking in this moment of the way our Gladwin Heights family continues to explore one development option that has seized our imagination, while also honouring the work already done and simultaneously moving forward on other options. I am grateful that, while in some groups this might occasion a clash of egos, this is not happening here.

I am also grateful that Saint Andrew's operates in a similar manner, with everyone offering their unique gifts and honouring the contributions of others.

Siblings in Christ, thank you for the faithful way you walk.

Yours in Christ,

Tim.
