Welcome to Gloria Dei – and our observance of All Saints' Day!

Today we celebrate All Saints' Day, one of the principle feasts observed by the Episcopal Church. Through this celebration, we remember that life does not end at the grave, and that our loved ones who have died now stand in the presence of God. The author of Hebrews reminds us that we are surrounded by a "great cloud of witnesses" who have gone before us, testifying to the goodness and faithfulness of God. Even a quick look around at the pews and plaques of Gloria Dei provides another such reminder. So, as we come to worship the God of the living, let us remember all those who have been an example to us of holy and faithful lives, and let us rejoice in the promise of resurrection.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

All Almighty God, you have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord: Give us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those ineffable joys that you have prepared for those who truly love you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

(Congregation is invited to sit for the readings.)

First Reading

Isaiah 1:10-18

Christine Pickup

Hear the word of the LORD, you rulers of Sodom!

Listen to the teaching of our God, you people of Gomorrah!

What to me is the multitude of your sacrifices? says the LORD;

I have had enough of burnt offerings of rams and the fat of fed beasts;

I do not delight in the blood of bulls, or of lambs, or of goats.

When you come to appear before me, who asked this from your hand?

Trample my courts no more; bringing offerings is futile; incense is an abomination to me.

New moon and sabbath and calling of convocation-- I cannot endure solemn assemblies with iniquity.

Your new moons and your appointed festivals my soul hates;

they have become a burden to me, I am weary of bearing them.

When you stretch out your hands, I will hide my eyes from you; even though you make many prayers, I will not listen; your hands are full of blood.

Wash yourselves; make yourselves clean; remove the evil of your doings from before my eyes; cease to do evil, learn to do good; seek justice, rescue the oppressed, defend the orphan, plead for the widow.

Come now, let us argue it out, says the LORD: though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be like snow; though they are red like crimson, they shall become like wool.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

All Thanks be to God

Psalm 32:1-8

Happy are they whose transgressions are forgiven, *
and whose sin is put away!

Happy are they to whom the LORD imputes no guilt, *
and in whose spirit there is no guile!

While I held my tongue, my bones withered away, * because of my groaning all day long.

For your hand was heavy upon me day and night; *
my moisture was dried up as in the heat of summer.

Then I acknowledged my sin to you, *
and did not conceal my guilt.

I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the LORD." *
Then you forgave me the guilt of my sin.

Therefore all the faithful will make their prayers to you in time of trouble; *
when the great waters overflow, they shall not reach them.

You are my hiding-place; you preserve me from trouble; *
you surround me with shouts of deliverance.

Second Reading 2 Thessalonians 1:1-4, 11-12

Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy,

To the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

We must always give thanks to God for you, brothers and sisters, as is right, because your faith is growing abundantly, and the love of everyone of you for one another is increasing. Therefore we ourselves boast of you among the churches of God for your steadfastness and faith during all your persecutions and the afflictions that you are enduring.

To this end we always pray for you, asking that our God will make you worthy of his call and will fulfill by his power every good resolve and work of faith, so that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

All Thanks be to God.

Hymn # 551

Rise Up Ye Saints of God

Hymnal 1982

Gospel Reading

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke (19:1-10)

All Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus entered Jericho and was passing through it. A man was there named Zacchaeus; he was a chief tax collector and was rich. He was trying to see who Jesus was, but on account of the crowd he could not, because he was short in stature. So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree to see him, because he was going to pass that way. When Jesus came to the place, he looked up and said to him, "Zacchaeus, hurry and come down; for I must stay at your house today." So he hurried down and was happy to welcome him. All who saw it began to grumble and said, "He has gone to be the guest of one who is a sinner." Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, "Look, half of my possessions, Lord, I will give to the poor; and if I have defrauded anyone of anything, I will pay back four times as much." Then Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, because he too is a son of Abraham. For the Son of Man came to seek out and to save the lost."

Celebrant The Gospel of the Lord.

All Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Sermon Rev. Chris Micklewright

The sermon is an opportunity to reflect on the Scriptures we have read in the light of the Christian tradition, the life of this community, and the needs of the world around us. You don't have to agree with the preacher, and further conversation is always welcome!

After the sermon, there will be a few moments for quiet reflection. Then the congregation will stand to reaffirm our faith using the Nicene Creed. Some elements may be strange or confusing – and you are invited to engage in conversation and reflection around the Creed. In the life of faith, we sometimes confess more than we fully understand, and God's grace is faithful to meet us wherever we are on the journey.

Presentation and Examination of the Candidates

(Candidates, Parents, and Godparents come forward for the baptism)

- Celebrant The Candidate for Holy Baptism will now be presented.
Sponsors We present Callan Francis / Miles Joseph / Lorenzo Colton / Luca Tyson to receive the Sacrament of Baptism.
- Celebrant Will you be responsible for seeing that the child you present is brought up in the Christian faith and life?
Sponsors I will, with God's help.
- Celebrant Will you by your prayers and witness help this child to grow into the full stature of Christ?
Sponsors I will, with God's help.
- Celebrant Do you renounce Satan and all the spiritual forces of wickedness that rebel against God?
Sponsors I renounce them.
- Celebrant Do you renounce the evil powers of this world which corrupt and destroy the creatures of God?
Sponsors I renounce them.
- Celebrant Do you renounce all sinful desires that draw you from the love of God?
Sponsors I renounce them.
- Celebrant Do you turn to Jesus Christ and accept him as your Savior?
Sponsors I do.
- Celebrant Do you put your whole trust in his grace and love?

Celebrant Will you proclaim by word and example the Good News of God in Christ?
All I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you seek and serve Christ in all persons, loving your neighbor as yourself?
All I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you strive for justice and peace among all people, and respect the dignity of every human being?
All I will, with God's help.

Prayers for the Candidates (Led by the Godparents)

Celebrant Let us now pray for this person who is to receive the Sacrament of new birth.
Dina Deliver them, O Lord, from the way of sin and death.
All Lord, hear our prayer.

Michael Open their hearts to your grace and truth.
All Lord, hear our prayer.

Amber Fill them with your holy and life-giving Spirit.
All Lord, hear our prayer.

Joshua Keep them in the faith and communion of your holy Church.
All Lord, hear our prayer.

Lauryn Teach them to love others in the power of the Spirit.
All Lord, hear our prayer.

Eric Send them into the world in witness to your love.
All Lord, hear our prayer.

Alessandra Bring them to the fullness of your peace and glory.
All Lord, hear our prayer.

Celebrant Grant, O Lord, that all who are baptized into the death of Jesus Christ your Son may live in the power of his resurrection and look for him to come again in glory; who lives and reigns now and forever. Amen.

Thanksgiving Over the Water

(Candidates, Sponsors, and Priest gather around the baptismal font.)

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
All And also with you.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
All It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant We thank you, Almighty God, for the gift of water. Over it the Holy Spirit moved in the beginning of creation. Through it you led the children of Israel out of their bondage in Egypt into the land of promise. In it your Son Jesus received the baptism of John and was anointed by the Holy Spirit as the Messiah, the Christ, to lead us, through his death and resurrection, from the bondage of sin into everlasting life.

We thank you, Father, for the water of Baptism. In it we are buried with Christ in his death. By it we share in his resurrection. Through it we are reborn by the Holy Spirit. Therefore in joyful obedience to your Son, we bring into his fellowship those who come to him in faith, baptizing them in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Celebrant Now sanctify this water, we pray you, by the power of your Holy Spirit, that those who here are cleansed from sin and born again may continue forever in the risen life of Jesus Christ our Savior. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be all honor and glory, now and forever. Amen.

The Baptism

Celebrant Callan Francis / Miles Joseph / Lorenzo Colton / Luca Tyson, I baptize you in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Celebrant Let us pray. Heavenly Father, we thank you that by water and the Holy Spirit you have bestowed upon these your servants the forgiveness of sin, and have raised them to the new life of grace. Sustain them, O Lord, in your Holy Spirit. Give them an inquiring and discerning heart, the courage to will and to persevere, a spirit to know and to love you, and the gift of joy and wonder in all your works. Amen.

Callan Francis / Miles Joseph / Lorenzo Colton / Luca Tyson, you are sealed by the Holy Spirit in Baptism and marked as Christ's own forever. Amen.

Celebrant Let us welcome the newly baptized.

All We receive you into the household of God. Confess the faith of Christ crucified, proclaim his resurrection, and share with us in his eternal priesthood.

The Peace

Celebrant The Peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you. (Please share the peace by greeting your siblings in Christ.)

Celebrant Let us prepare ourselves for prayer with a few moments of silence. (Silence)

Prayers of the People

Candace Roberts

Intercessor We pray for the unity of the church throughout the world, and especially for Sarah, Sean and Daniel, our Bishops; for Chris, our priest; for Rachel, our postulant; for our Vestry, and for this congregation;

People That we may faithfully reflect God's love and mercy. (Silence)

Intercessor We pray for our troubled nation, especially as we approach an election;

People That divisions may be healed and hatred cease. (Silence)

Intercessor We pray for those in positions of power and authority;

People That they might care for the most vulnerable among us, and serve the common good. (Silence)

Intercessor We pray for deliverance from militarism, racism, and materialism, and especially for those who are hungry, scared, or in any other trouble;

People That justice, freedom, and peace may be known on earth as in heaven. (Silence)

Intercessor We pray for this beautiful world, and for all the victims of climate change;

People That we may care well for all God's creatures. (Silence)

Intercessor We pray for the special needs and concerns of this congregation, especially:

People Gia, Erica, Patty, Dana, Angel, Christine, Jeanette, Dakota, Emily, Dina, Anthony, Rebecca, Beth, Christine, Charles, Seamus, Thomassina, Gregory, Julie, Denise, Jason, the Juline Family, Barb, Laurie, Jerry, Peggy, JoAnn, Joanna, Mark, Margie, Bonnie, Keith, Connie, and Jack.

(Long pause for people to add their own petitions.)

Intercessor On this All Saints' Day, we pray for all the departed, and we ask for God to comfort their loved ones. As we look forward to the promise of the resurrection, let us remember those who have died this year by praying aloud their first names.

We will read the first names of all the departed in unison.

		Vincent

Celebrant Eternal Lord God, you hold all souls in life: Give to your whole Church in paradise and on earth your light and your peace; and grant that we, following the good examples of those who have served you here and are now at rest, may at last enter with them into your unending joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

People Amen.

Offertory Sentence

Celebrant Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight and the sin that clings so closely, and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus the pioneer and perfecter of our faith. – Hebrews 12:1-2a

Collecting an offering is a way for us to remember that all we have is a gift from God, and that we are responsible to be good stewards of the gifts entrusted to us. Guests should feel no obligation to give. Electronic giving is possible using the QR code found on the back of the bulletin. After the collection, the offering is brought forward as we stand to sing together the following song of thanksgiving.

Flowingly, in 1 Unknown

Praise God from whom all Blessings flow, praise Him all creatures here below. Praise Him above all heavenly hosts, praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

The Holy Communion – Enriching Our Worship, Eucharistic Prayer 2

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant We praise you and we bless you, holy and gracious God, source of life abundant. From before time you made ready the creation. Your Spirit moved over the deep and brought all things into being: sun, moon, and stars; earth, winds, and waters; and every living thing. You made us in your image, and taught us to walk in your ways. But we rebelled against you, and wandered far away; and yet, as a mother cares for her children, you would not forget us. Time and again you called us to live in the fullness of your love. And so this day we join with Saints and Angels in the chorus of praise that rings through eternity, lifting our voices to magnify you as we sing:

©2013 tsunami productions

Celebrant Glory and honor and praise to you, holy and living God. To deliver us from the power of sin and death and to reveal the riches of your grace, you looked with favor upon Mary, your willing servant, that she might conceive and bear a son, Jesus the holy child of God.

Living among us, Jesus loved us. He broke bread with outcasts and sinners, healed the sick, and proclaimed good news to the poor. He yearned to draw all the world to himself yet we were heedless of his call to walk in love. Then, the time came for him to complete upon the cross the sacrifice of his life, and to be glorified by you.

On the night before he died for us, Jesus was at table with his friends. He took bread, gave thanks to you, broke it, and gave it to them, and said: "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine. Again, he gave thanks to you, gave it to them, and said: "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Now gathered at your table, O God of all creation, and remembering Christ, crucified and risen, who was and is and is to come, we offer to you our gifts of bread and wine, and ourselves, a living sacrifice. Pour out your Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Body and Blood of Christ.

Breathe your Spirit over the whole earth and make us your new creation, the Body of Christ given for the world you have made. In the fullness of time bring us, with all your saints, from every tribe and language and people and nation, to feast at the banquet prepared from the foundation of the world. Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever.

People (In a loud voice!) AMEN!

Celebrant	And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
All	Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; Thy kingdom come; thy will be done; On earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses,	As we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory, For ever and ever. Amen.

Fraction & Invitation

Celebrant	Alleluia! Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.
All	Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia!

Celebrant This is the table not of the church but of our Lord Jesus. It is made ready for those who love him and those who want to love him more. So come, you who have much faith and you who have little, you who have been here often and you who have not been here long, you who have tried to follow and you who have failed. Come, because it is Jesus who invites you. It is his will that those who want him should meet him here.

All those interested in receiving communion should make their way forward to the rail, while the priest and the altar guild assistant prepare to distribute the elements to the congregation.

Episcopal theology recognizes baptism as the formal entry into the Christian community, and baptism is normally a prerequisite to receiving communion. However, we also recognize that God meets us wherever we are on our journey of faith. Moreover, Jesus regularly welcomed and ate with people from outside of his normal community.

Therefore, all are welcome at this table - including children!

Kneel or stand at the rail, as you are comfortable. Gluten free wafers are available – just hold up one finger. The priest will distribute wafers, which you receive in your outstretched hands. If you wish to receive the wine, you may sip from the cup or dip your wafer; it is also okay to receive the wafer only – we believe that Jesus is fully present in each of the elements of communion. If, for any reason, you prefer not to receive, you are still warmly invited to come forward and cross your arms to receive a blessing instead.

Instrumental Hymn #620

Jerusalem, My Happy Home

Hymnal 1982

Post Communion Prayer & Blessing

All	Almighty and everliving God, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom. And now, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

Memorial Service for Rev. David Rivers – Saturday, November 15 at 2:00pm

Dave Rivers served as the priest of Gloria Dei from 1972-2004, and the impact of his faithful service to our community is felt to this day. Dave passed into the next life on September 20, and all are invited to join us for a memorial service and celebration of life on Saturday, November 15. Internment in our graveyard will follow the service, as will a reception. More details about locations and parking will be posted on our website as plans are finalized.

Lucia Fest & St. Eric's Fair

Celebrate a beautiful Swedish tradition in it's 88th year! Lucia Fest is a colorful, musical pageant, to honor St. Lucia, the bearer of light during the dark Swedish winters. It is a unique opportunity to witness this authentic holiday tradition, performed in a 300-year-old church built by Swedish settlers.

A Scandinavian Christmas bazaar - St. Eric's Fair - will be open before and after each showtime, with imported goods, food & drink available for purchase.

Tickets will be available online from October 1 to December 3. After December 3, tickets will be sold at the door only. Showtimes are 2:00, 3:30 & 5:00. $15 for adult, $10 youths 12 and under.

Sexton Sideshow presents a tribute to O Brother, Where Art Thou?

Sexton Sideshow presents a tribute to O Brother, Where Art Thou? This is the 7th year for this wildly popular show. Both shows sold out in 2024, don't miss out this time around! Doors open 6:30, show begins 7:30. Tickets will be available online November 5th.

Construction Beginning Soon!

We're delighted that Gloria Dei Church and the Historic Gloria Dei Preservation Corporation have received multiple grants this year, which will support the installation of a new roof on the church, repairs to the bell, a stormwater management system and resurfaced parking lot, and more!

Construction on the major projects will likely begin in 2026, and updates will be provided as plans are finalized. To get involved in our ongoing preservation and grant-seeking efforts, talk with Rev. Chris or Amy Grant.
