Week 3...

Leviticus - Chapters 11-15

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Share your experience of reading Leviticus 11-15. What kind of things went through your mind and what kind of questions came up for you?
2. What stood out to you from Sunday's message from Leviticus 11-15? In what way did Jesus speak to you personally?
3. Read Leviticus 11.44-45 and then 1 Peter 1.13-16. What are the obvious similarities between the two passages? What did Leviticus 11.44-45 mean to the people of God in the OT? What kind of messages live in 1 Peter 1.13-16 and how does it speak to us today?
4. Read 1 Peter 2.9-12. In what ways do you see this passage connecting to (or springing from) the book of Leviticus? What words or concepts stand out to you from this 1 Peter passage? Why? What action is Jesus calling you toward through this passage?
5. Christmas Party Discussion: Last week your group began brainstorming some kind of Christmas outreach. We are encouraging you to consider a party or at least something that involves food and helps to build friendships with people who don't know Jesus yet. Continue brainstorming and narrow your ideas down to one you could work on together. What would the next steps be?
