Galatians 5:13-6:10 – Living Free (Part 9)

Believers are called to share all good things with their instructors, those who preach and teach biblical truth, so that believers can apply biblical wisdom in practical ways in their daily lives.

Be supportive.

Be generous.

We respond and apply the Word of God we have heard by supporting and honoring our instructors.

Therefore, as God's chosen people, holy and dearly loved, may you clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience [as you share all good things with your instructors]. And whatever you do, whether in word or deed, may you do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him. May the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in one body. And be thankful. (Colossians 3:12,15,17)

Discussion Questions:

- What are the responsibilities of an instructor of the Word of God?
- What does it mean that the one who receives instruction should share all good things with their instructor?
- Why should budgeting, managing debt, saving, and investing precede giving generously?
- What does it mean to give generously with joy? What should we do if we are unable to give willingly and joyfully?
- How can believers support and honor their instructors?
