The Call to Worship

Leader: Come, let us worship God who gives us eternal life through Jesus Christ, who conquered death and opened the way to everlasting joy.

C: In the face of death, we will not fear, for God is with us. For God has given us His Son, and His sure promise that those who set their hope in Him would not perish, but have eternal life.

L: So let us lift our hearts and minds, and praise the Lord, our Rock and our Redeemer.

L: Please join me in the Lord's Prayer.

OFFERING

OFFERING PRAYER: C. Blessed are you, O God, maker of all things. Through your goodness you have blessed us with these gifts: ourselves, our time and our possessions. Use us, and what we have gathered, in feeding the world with your love, through the one who gave himself for us, Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen

Sending Hymn: *Send Me, Jesus"

WOV Pg. 773

Benediction

L: The message of the New Testament, with all its difficulties, its time-bound concrete expressions and amplifications, situational expansions, elaborations and shifts of emphasis, is basically concerned with something simple:

C: The different Christian witnesses are agreed that the Crucified lives forever with God, as obligation and hope for us.

L: The people of the New Testament are sustained by the certainty that the one who was killed did not remain dead but is alive and that the person who clings to him will likewise live.

C: This new, eternal life is a challenge and real hope for all.

L: Therefore, go in peace. C: Serve the Lord.
