IMPLEMENTING SCREENING STANDARDS

All screening standards must be applied equitably and consistently. Do not lower the standards and do not skip steps. It is the nature of the position not the nature of the person holding the position which determines the standard. It is the responsibility of the organizational leadership (bishop, churchwardens, director, incumbent, priest-in-charge) to ensure that screening standards are implemented in the parish or organization.

Carefully fill out the Screening Checklist, (see additional resources), for each person being screened.

Low Risk Ministries - It is recommended that all people in these ministries:

1. Fill out an Application Form which does not require a list of references.
2. Receive a Ministry Description of the position.
3. Be trained for the ministry.
4. Meet regularly with a supervisor who will provide support, feedback, mentoring and information about the nature and duties of the ministry.

Medium Risk Ministries - It is required that all people in these ministries:

1. Be known to the organization or a regular church attender for at least 12 months or have a good reference from another parish before they are assigned to the ministry. (This may not be an appropriate requirement for paid employees.)
2. Fill out an Application Form which does not require a list of references.
3. Receive a Ministry Description for the position.
4. Be interviewed by the senior person responsible for the ministry to discern suitability. The discussion should include a review of the ministry description, the norms of the faith community and expected behaviour and attitudes required for the position.
5. Be trained for the ministry.
6. Attend a sexual misconduct policy training session at the beginning of the ministry and every three years thereafter. The person responsible for the ministry will ensure the person's attendance is recorded and kept on file for an indefinite period.
7. Receive a copy of the Guidelines appropriate for their type of ministry.

8. Meet regularly with a supervisor who will provide support, feedback and mentoring.

High Risk Ministries - It is required that all people in these ministries:

1. Be known to the organization and a regular attender for at least 12 months or have a good reference from another parish before they are assigned to the ministry. (This may not be appropriate for paid employees.)
2. Fill out an Application Form and provide a list of three references.
3. Sign a release on the Application Form allowing for reference checks. The senior person responsible for the ministry will ensure the reference checks are completed.
4. Receive a Ministry Description of the position.
5. Be interviewed by the senior person responsible for the ministry to discern suitability. The discussion should include a review of the ministry description, the norms of the faith community and expected behaviour and attitudes required for the position.
6. Be trained for the ministry.
7. Attend a sexual misconduct policy training session at the beginning of the ministry and every three years thereafter. The person responsible for the ministry will ensure the person's attendance is recorded and kept on file for an indefinite period of time.
8. Receive a copy of the Guidelines appropriate for their type of ministry.
9. Document all one-on-one visits or meetings that occur with children or vulnerable adults. All off-site activities involving children under the age of 16 shall require a parental consent form signed by parents or legal guardians.
10. Meet regularly with a supervisor who will provide support, feedback and mentoring.
11. Send a current background check (no more than one (1) year old) from their local police department to the archdeacon for ministry and program at the diocesan Synod Office.

Establish Training and Supervision.

Clear lines of supervision must be established for all ministry positions. All individuals ministering in positions of authority should have regularly scheduled meetings with a supervisor to discuss the ministry. When an individual is in doubt about appropriate or inappropriate courses of action or is in doubt about the vulnerability of a particular group or individual, or when they believe a boundary may have been crossed in the course of ministry, they must report the situation to the supervisor and seek advice on how to proceed. If the supervisory person is unable, unwilling or unavailable to assist, advice should be sought from another qualified individual. It is important that the supervisory or advisory person be identified in advance so that there is no question about whom to contact should it become necessary.

All individuals ministering in medium and high-risk positions, because of their responsibilities for children or vulnerable adults, shall attend a sexual misconduct policy training workshop at the beginning of their ministry and every three years, thereafter. The diocese shall supply training resources to assist the parishes with this responsibility.
