Crossing the Threshold of Hope: A Women's Retreat

with Bernadette Rudolph, MA, MS

During this Jubilee Year of Hope, we are asked to celebrate our spiritual journey and how it leads us to and from Jesus, our Gate (John 10:7). Enjoy this Day of Reflection to ponder the holy doors through which you have passed and those you are called to cross over with faith and love.

Bernadette Rudolph, MA, MS, Facilitator, is Director of Facilitation and Strategic Partnerships at Cranaleith Spiritual Center, Philadelphia. She has earned degrees in the liberal arts, religion and religious education and educational leadership, as well as a certificate in spiritual direction. Her experience includes communal discernment, Scripture study, retreat work and pastoral care.

BIBLE STUDY – All seven (7) Sessions in progress.

For more information on any of our Sessions, please contact Eileen Koch per above.

LECTIO DIVINA – Meets on Thursday mornings at 10:30AM in the St. Anne's Meeting Room. If you have not been part of Lectio in the past, Lectio Divina means "divine reading" in Latin. It is a traditional Christian practice of scriptural reading and prayer intended to promote communion with God. It involves a slow, contemplative reading of a passage of Scripture, with the goal of encountering God through His Word. We read, reflect and discuss the readings and the Gospel for the coming Sunday. All are welcome!

This weekend, we welcome David Loff who will be speaking at all the Masses on behalf of the Annual St. Charles Seminary Appeal.

Your prayers for the perseverance of our Seminarians and your generosity are always needed and appreciated. Thank you!

SPN Parish Council Holy Moment Thought...

"Peace Be With You"

There is a profound truth at the heart of our Christian life...you must first have peace in your own soul before you can effectively foster peace among others. It is through the peace that Christ offers us, the true peace rooted in humility, charity, and trust, that we become real instruments of His love.

The Holy Scriptures teach us that peaceable people accomplish more good than even the learned. For their actions are guided by grace and authenticity. Those who are honest and peaceful, trustworthy and loving, turn all things to good. In contrast, those driven by passion may distort what is good, turning to anger or suspicion. It is easy to love those who are easy-going and well-liked. Yet, the true test of virtue and holiness is how we live with the difficult, the contrary, and the hostile. Those who challenge our patience and virtue. Living at peace with the perverse and aggressive, extending kindness where it is not deserved, requires a great grace rooted in the Holy Spirit. This is where true Christianity is revealed!

Remember, in this life's trials, our peace does not come from a life free of adversity. Instead, it is found in our humble acceptance of suffering, in trusting God's providence amid contradictions and hardships. The saints and martyrs teach us that those who can best suffer and endure with patience become masters of themselves and, by grace, become true 'lords of the world' with Christ as their Lord and guide, with heaven as their eternal home. Let us take some time and ask for that grace today to cultivate a peace within our hearts that overflows into our relationships and communities. Let us imitate Christ, who bore all suffering with patience, trusting that through His wounds, we find our healing and peace! May Saint Paul's words guide us..."Let the peace of Christ control your hearts..." (Colossians 3:15). And may Our Lord fill our hearts with the peace that surpasses all understanding, so that we may be witnesses to His love in the world.

Let us reflect on these words as we approach this Advent Season. God bless you all!
