Week 4...

Leviticus - Chapter 16

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Share your experiences of reading Leviticus 16. What kind of things went through your mind and what kind of questions came up for you?
2. What stood out to you from Sunday's message from Leviticus 16? In what way did Jesus speak to you personally?
3. Read Leviticus 16.1-2. If you were Aaron or any of the subsequent High Priests, what kind of feelings might you have about entering the Most Holy Place? Now read Hebrews 10.19-25. What has changed since Leviticus 16 and why? How does this impact how we can approach God now? Read vs 23-25 again, what speaks to you from these verses and why?
4. Read 2 Corinthians 5.17-20. In what ways does Leviticus 16 help you to appreciate this passage and also Jesus even more? What action is Jesus calling us to in vs 20? What could obedience to Jesus in this look like in your everyday life, and/or through this group together?
5. Christmas Party Discussion: By now your group should have decided on some kind of Christmas outreach together. If not, make that decision today. We are encouraging a party because it is an opportunity to work together to build friendships with people who don't know Jesus yet. What do you need to do be well prepared for this Christmas outreach? Discuss next steps.
