

WHY SOLAR?

Solar Power generation is the most effective type of project that small community organizations can commit to making a self-sustaining parish and helping reduce carbon emissions. We have ample south-facing roof space that can bring in financial investment as well as being a beacon of stewardship to the community around us.