

New Members Testimonies

Chan Yew Woo

When I was seven years old, I first learned about the Gospel from a Christian missionary who visited my first grade class. The Bible had a profound impact on me. Later, during junior college, my friends and I attended fellowship gatherings together. Two of my friends eventually became pastors in Malaysia and New Zealand. After moving to Oregon, I came to faith in the Gospel of Jesus Christ as described in the Scriptures. There, I attended "Joy to the World Ministry" led by Gayle and Marilyn Davis. The Gospel refers to the good news of Christ's death and resurrection, which pays the penalty for our sins and provides a path to eternal life. I was eventually baptized at the First Baptist Church. I base the assurance of my salvation on my faith in the will of Jesus Christ. As I continue to trust in Him, I experience the empowering presence of the Holy Spirit actively working in my life, transforming me to become more like Jesus. Witnessing this transformation deepens my confidence in being a child of God. (1 John 5:11-13)

Joshua Sharpe

I was born into a Christian family and gave my life to Christ at the age of three. Since then, I have continued to learn what it means to follow Jesus and I have seen Him at work in my life. My salvation is guaranteed because of the death and resurrection of Jesus which displayed God's mercy and love. I have put my faith in Him and God has made me His child.
