October is Pastor appreciation month and we need to get to know Pastor Kevin. so we will add a question for him and his answer to the bulletin every week until Thanksgiving.

Question for Pastor: Who are three people from history you'd like to have dinner with?

Pastor Kevin's Answer: Of course, I'd pick God or other biblical characters, but to be more challenging... I would pick George Müller. His prayer life was extraordinary, he cared for more than 10,000 orphans among five orphanages, and more than 120,000 children in his Christian education program in Bristol, England. I would also choose Richard Wurmbrand, a Christian POW for 14 years, for his faith. He was the subject of the book, Tortured for Christ. Last is my grandpa, Morey Butler. He passed in February of 2022. I miss him so much and wish he could come see the family at First Baptist today. He would be so proud.

Important:

We collected 158 Containers of frosting for the rescue missions thanksgiving baskets!

From the Sunday School Dept:

Our Children will be working on a Christmas program to share with everyone during the morning service on December 21st. Our goal is to include all of our children in the program, in one way or another. We will be reaching out to each of the parents or grandparents, just to confirm that you and your child plan to be at the December 21st service, so we know who to count on and how to start preparing. Thank you in advance!
Any questions? Contact Stephanie Montalvo or Karen Poland.
