Road trip! Packing a van with 2 kiddos is much easier than 4!

BC and Alberta are truly beautiful! We drove around 11,000Km's this summer, mostly around BC.

Which airport?? Either Calgary, (doesn't look like YVR), Narita in Japan, or Jakarta.

Now with just 4 of us these airplane selfies get a bit easier.

Two days in Jakarta! Our stop here enabled us to get Charlotte a new passport...And some sushi :)

Travelling “Home”

In mid-August we headed back overseas to Papua. It started with a trip from Revelstoke (love and miss you Mom & Dad) to Calgary. I always love driving through Rogers Pass, on to the Rockies and then into the flat land. My kids put up with a lot of random facts and memories I spit out along certain roads in BC. When they were younger, they were more of a captive audience, now I have to compete with ear buds :)

From Calgary our route went to Vancouver - Tokyo - Jakarta, 19hrs or so flight time. In Jakarta we planned an extra day to get Charlotte's passport renewed (we always need ample time on our passports in Indonesia for the yearly visa renewal process). It just so happened that we extended our stay in Jakarta an extra day due to a couple unscheduled visits to the hospital. I ended up receiving a treatment for my left eye, something that I would appreciate prayer for as I try to figure out next steps to care for it (Papua is a long way from any eye specialists). Helena also ended up receiving surgery in a different hospital in Jakarta for an infection that was getting much worse along our trip. Unfortunately, this surgery was needed again here in Papua a week or so ago as the infection remained. We would really appreciate prayers for her full recovery.

From Jakarta, we took the mid-night express 5 hr flight east to Papua, home at last! I want to give a special thank you to each one of you that opened up your homes to us this past summer, it was so good to reconnect with ya'll and spend time together (you know who you are). But now, we are thankful to be home and back into our routines of life, school and work here in Sentani. We look forward to sharing more stories soon about what is going both in our lives here as well as MAF's ministry in Papua!
