

Leviticus Series - Discussion Guide

Week 5...

Leviticus - Chapter 17-20

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Share your experiences of reading Leviticus 17-20. What kind of things went through your mind and what kind of questions came up for you?
2. What stood out to you from Sunday's message from Leviticus 17-20? In what way did Jesus speak to you personally?
3. Read Leviticus 18.1-5. What did Egypt and Canaan represent to God's people in Leviticus? In what ways do chapters 17-20 call God's people to lives of purity? (hint: think idolatry & sexual immorality). What could Egypt and Canaan represent for us and our lives today? Why does God call us to purity today?
4. Read the story of John 8.1-11. a) What stands out to you about this story as you hear it today? b) How do we see both idolatry and sexual immorality linked in this story? (hint: what was all of Israel caught in their sin of?) c) How do you see the gospel in this story?
5. Christmas Party Discussion: By now your group should have decided on some kind of Christmas outreach together. If not, make that decision today. We are encouraging a party because it is an opportunity to work together to build friendships with people who don't know Jesus yet. What do you need to do to be well prepared for this Christmas outreach? Discuss next steps.
