THE WORSHIP SERVICE – 10:00 AM In-Person & Zoom

The end is near. There is no doubt about it. The warnings are dire. The tone of today's texts is ominous. But the baptized know how to live in the meantime. The baptized are strengthened for the living of these days in word and sacrament. The baptized rally around the invitation of the apostle: "Do not be weary in doing what is right."

WELCOME

Announcements & Prelude

 A Call to Worship

P: O Lord, protect us from the dangers of this world--

C: earthquake and famine, warfare and plague--

P: signs of this world's deathward decay. O Lord, protect us from the dangers of sin--

C: for we are in bondage and cannot free ourselves.

P: Loose our chains, O Lord.

C: Open our shackles.

P: And free us from the fear of the unknown. For you are with us.

C: Your good and gracious will is, even now, being done.

P: And the promises of your eternal kingdom are both sure ...

C: ... and secure!

P: Through Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord. He lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now ...

C: and forever. Amen.

* Confession and Forgiveness

P: Blessed be the holy Trinity, † one God,
who forgives all our sin,
whose mercy endures forever. Amen.

P: Let us confess our sin in the presence of God
and of one another.

Silence is kept for reflection.

P: Faithful God,

C: you have shown us the ways of your heart,
yet we stray from your paths.
We are stuck in sinful systems of oppression
and do not embrace the freedom
of your faithful promises.
We ignore our neighbors.
We exploit the earth.
We reject your abundance,
trusting our impulses instead of your steadfast love.
Repair our relationships,
restore what we have broken,
renew our hearts,
and bring us to new life. Amen.

P: Hear the good news:
God the Faithful One loves you,
† in Christ Jesus your sins are forgiven,
and by the power of the Holy Spirit you are set free.
C: Amen.

* Greeting

P: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

C: And also with you.

* Gloria

* Prayer of the Day

O God, the protector of all who trust in you, without you nothing is strong, nothing is holy. Embrace us with your mercy, that with you as our ruler and guide, we may live through what is temporary without losing what is eternal, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

First Lesson: Malachi 4:1-2a

¹ See, the day is coming, burning like an oven, when all the arrogant and all evildoers will be stubble; the day that comes shall burn them up, says the LORD of hosts, so that it will leave them neither root nor branch. ^{2a} But for you who revere my name the sun of righteousness shall rise, with healing in its wings. Word of God, word of life. Thanks be to God.

Psalmody: Psalms 98

¹ Sing a new song to the LORD, who has done | marvelous things,
whose right hand and holy arm have | won the victory.

² O LORD, you have made | known your victory,
you have revealed your righteousness in the sight | of the nations.

³ You remember your steadfast love and faithfulness to the | house of
Israel; all the ends of the earth have seen the victory | of our God.

⁴ Shout with joy to the LORD, | all you lands;
lift up your voice, re- | joice, and sing.

⁵ Sing to the LORD | with the harp,
with the harp and the | voice of song.

⁶ With trumpets and the sound | of the horn
shout with joy before the | king, the LORD.

⁷ Let the sea roar, and | all that fills it,
the world and those who | dwell therein.

⁸ Let the rivers | clap their hands,
and let the hills ring out with joy before the LORD, who comes
to | judge the earth.

⁹ The LORD will judge the | world with righteousness
and the peo- | ples with equity.

Second Lesson: 2 Thessalonians 3:6-13

⁶ Now we command you, brothers and sisters, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, to keep away from every brother or sister living irresponsibly and not according to the tradition that they received from us. ⁷ For you yourselves know how you ought to imitate us; we were not irresponsible when we were with you, ⁸ and we did not eat anyone's bread without paying for it, but with toil and labor we worked night and day so that we might not burden any of you. ⁹ This was not because we do not have that right but in order to give you an example to imitate. ¹⁰ For even when we were with you, we gave you this command: anyone unwilling to work should not eat. ¹¹ For we hear that some of you are living irresponsibly, mere busybodies, not doing any work. ¹² Now such persons we command and exhort in the Lord Jesus Christ to do their work quietly and to earn their own living. ¹³ Brothers and sisters, do not be weary in doing what is right. Word of God, word of life. Thanks be to God.

P: The Holy Gospel according to Luke the 21st chapter.

C: Glory to You, O Lord.

The Holy Gospel: Luke 21:5-19

⁵ When some were speaking about the temple, how it was adorned with beautiful stones and gifts dedicated to God, [Jesus] said, ⁶ “As for these things that you see, the days will come when not one stone will be left upon another; all will be thrown down.”

⁷ They asked him, “Teacher, when will this be, and what will be the sign that this is about to take place?” ⁸ And he said, “Beware that you are not led astray, for many will come in my name and say, ‘I am he!’ and, ‘The time is near!’ Do not go after them.

⁹ “When you hear of wars and insurrections, do not be terrified, for these things must take place first, but the end will not follow immediately.” ¹⁰ Then he said to them, “Nation will rise against nation and kingdom against kingdom; ¹¹ there will be great earthquakes and in various places famines and plagues, and there will be dreadful portents and great signs from heaven.

¹² “But before all this occurs, they will arrest you and persecute you; they will hand you over to synagogues and prisons, and you will be brought before kings and governors because of my name. ¹³ This will give you an opportunity to testify. ¹⁴ So make up your minds not to prepare your defense in advance, ¹⁵ for I will give you words and a wisdom that none of your opponents will be able to withstand or contradict. ¹⁶ You will be betrayed even by parents and siblings, by relatives and friends, and they will put some of you to death. ¹⁷ You will be hated by all because of my name. ¹⁸ But not a hair of your head will perish. ¹⁹ By your endurance you will gain your souls.”

P: The Gospel of the Lord.
C: Praise to you, O Christ.

he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,

Garden News! The garden has been put to bed for the winter. As we look back over this planting season there is much to celebrate. We had a combination of very committed community members, church members and organizations who made our efforts a success. Some raised food for their own use, some provided community service and education, and others provided food for the LaVale United Methodist Church Food Pantry (over 667 pounds of fresh vegetables). The gardening classes provided by the University of MD Extension were very well attended. God has truly blessed! Thank you for your support!

Get out your calendars and mark the dates!!! On Friday, December 5th you are invited to attend an Advent Craft night. There will be crafts for all ages, and in the near future we will share what those crafts are. We have elves behind the scenes make some so you can see what will be available. To help offset the cost of materials, if you are able, we will be asking for five dollars ($5.00) per family. The evening would not be complete without snacks so please bring something to share.

THEN...

On Sunday, December 7th immediately following the service you are invited to stay for a light lunch and Hanging of the Greens. We will be decorating the Christmas tree, the sanctuary and the narthex. During lunch you will be invited to participate in some Christmas trivia and as we decorate the building will be filled with the music of the season. Please join your fellow congregation members as we celebrate the season.

THEN...

On Sunday, December 14th immediately following the service you are invited to stay for a light lunch and a PLAY around 12:30pm

Operation : Whispering Pines

Sunday, December 14th at 12:30pm
in the Christ Lutheran Fellowship Hall

We'll enjoy a light lunch after church,
and then the show.

Whispering Pines is a small, homey assisted living facility, but for how long? Upon the death of the owner, the facility has passed to his daughter who is determined to unload this "albatross." She has lined up buyers but there's only one problem – or really, six problems – the current residents.

Together they agree they are not going out without a fight! Knowing the new owner must find another facility to take them in, they come up with an elaborate scheme to ensure not one else will accept them. Can they pull off a Christmas miracle, or will it backfire? Will they lose their "family of friends?"

Bring a friend to church and share lunch and a fun holiday story with them!

The labyrinth

Often, in this time of year, whether walking or driving outside, don't you suddenly notice a "cloud" of birds, swooping overhead, they swiftly change course, instantly rearranging their formation, while they look a shimmering silver as the light falls differently on them. They never lose their speed as they change all at once again, looking dark now against the blue sky. winging and maneuvering the winds they encounter, seeming certain of the direction they are going to faraway places, they may never have been before.

Did you hear the honking of the Canadian geese, and see them flying overhead forming in the familiar V- shape? They also seem so sure of where they are going, encouraging each other with a honk, while they take turns leading their formation.

Have you seen a school of small fish in a creek, river, or lake, as they swim in formation? First, they form a rectangle, swimming in one direction, then in a flash, they turn and swim in the opposite directions and within another flash, they form a circle and rotate around an invisible center, each time forming themselves anew in coordinated patterns.

There are invisible patterns all through nature imprinted in each species, such as: in migrating whales; bears going for hibernation; baby turtles breaking out of their eggshells in the sand, to crawl across the beach to enter the ocean for their life's journey; the Monarch butterfly's long flight to warmer climates; the salmon's return to their birthplace to spawn, birds building intricate nests, and caring for their young...

Patterns are woven mysteriously into the web of Creation. "So too, is the longing of the human heart, to love and to nurture, to create and to discover the mystery we are in, that lives within us," (from Lauren Artress, "Walking a Sacred Path, Rediscovering the Labyrinth").

So, I believe imprinted in each human life too is a longing to seek God, over and over again, as we learn to fly on wings of faith, seeking deepening meaning, and inner peace, as we experience beauty and pain in this complex world. We also "fly" in community, encouraging each other...

One of many ways to seek God, and to find inner peace, has been through walking in meditation on the labyrinth. Labyrinths have been known for over 4,000 years, and can be found around the world. It has been an ancient symbol for the Holy in all of Creation. We do not know the origin of its design, which is a large complex spiral circle.

Entering the labyrinth, the path spirals clockwise to the center, while in prayer or meditation we can carry questions, concerns, or simply listen intently to nature sounds of bird, wind, branches. Walking out of the center, the path winds counterclockwise and ushers us back into the world, perhaps a little more strengthened in purpose, or in peace.

There are many, many ways to walk the labyrinth. Next time I will tell you a little more about symbolic meanings of the labyrinth which developed over the ages. Lydia Martin
