

FIRST BAPTIST LOGAN

Lord's Day November 23rd, 2025

Welcome & Announcements

Prelude Meditation, Prayer, and Confession

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Call to Worship Psalm 111

† Processional Hymn Give Thanks N° 576 RR

Affirmation of Faith (In Unison) Spurgeon's Catechism Question 3.

What do the Scriptures principally teach?

Answer:

The Scriptures principally teach what man is to believe concerning God, and what duty God requires of man.
(2 Timothy 1:13; Ecclesiastes 12:13)

Holy, Acceptable unto God

"Even the appearance of self-praise and courting human applause, is painful to the humble and spiritual mind. Nothing is more delightful to faithful ministers, or more to their praise, than the success of their ministry, as shown in the spirits and lives of those among whom they labor. The law of Christ was written in their hearts, and the love of Christ shed abroad there. Nor was it written in tables of stone, as the law of God given to Moses, but on... the tables of the heart, Ezekiel 36:26. Their hearts were humbled and softened to receive this impression, by the new-creating power of the Holy Spirit. He ascribes all the glory to God. And remember, as our whole dependence is upon the Lord, so the whole glory belongs to him alone."
