The Fiery Furnace

King Nebuchadnezzar had a big, gold statue of himself made. He said: "Anyone who doesn't worship my statue will be thrown into the fire."

Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego said, "We're sorry, but we only worship God."

The king was furious! He had the three young men thrown into the furnace. But soon he said, "Wait a minute. Didn't we throw three men in the furnace?"

"Yes," someone answered him.

"So why are there four men in there?"

They looked into the furnace and saw Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego walking around in the fire with an angel. The fire didn't hurt the Israelites at all. The king was so amazed that he changed his law. "Forget it! Don't worship my statue! Worship the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego! That is the God who really has power!"
