

Gift of salvation: Hosea 10:12 AMPC

Sow for yourselves according to righteousness

(uprightness and right standing with God);

reap according to mercy and loving-kindness.

Break up your uncultivated ground,

for it is time to seek the Lord,

to inquire for and of Him,

and to require His favor,

till He comes and teaches you righteousness

and rains His righteous gift of salvation upon you.

from Sermon Audio: An Urgent Necessity:

Charles Spurgeon: <https://www.sermonaudio.com/sermons/172417103708>

Drawing from agricultural imagery, the sermon emphasizes the urgency of seeking the Lord, asserting that the time for repentance and faith remains open despite past dangers and missed opportunities. It underscores that God's long-suffering is intended for correction, not provocation, and that while personal plans and earthly pursuits are fleeting, divine grace and righteousness are freely offered, particularly for the young, the aging, and those facing adversity. Ultimately, the message conveys a call to immediate action, urging listeners to embrace the opportunity for reconciliation and trust in God's sovereign power and promise of eventual restoration, even amidst the certainty of judgment.

from Sermon Audio: The Breaking of fallow ground

Billy Ingram <https://www.sermonaudio.com/sermons/36112115280>

Matthew 6:31-34 KJV

[31] Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed? [32] (For after all these things do the Gentiles seek:) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things. [33] But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. [34] Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.