

Life Group Study Questions Acts 28:11-31

1. Read Acts 28:11-31 together. As you think about this weekend's sermon, what stood out to you? What questions come to mind? Was there anything unclear or confusing?
2. As you think through the series on the book of Acts, what has been the most impactful part? Do you feel you have a better understanding of this book of the Bible? In what ways?
3. The first point of the sermon was: "The gospel creates a new worldwide family". Have you experienced the deep connection Christians have with each other? Do you view other Christians as brothers or sisters?
4. The second point of the sermon was: "The gospel frees us from bitterness and revenge". Read Romans 12:19-21 together. How does the gospel free us from needing to exact vengeance on people? How does Paul's example in our passage speak to that?
5. The third point of the sermon was: "The gospel divides". Do you have examples from your own life of this being true? Read 1 Corinthians 1:18-25. How does knowing this free us up in our evangelism?
6. The fourth point of the sermon was: "The gospel must be understood and perceived, not just heard and seen". Share the time that you heard the gospel and it changed your heart. Read Ezekiel 36:26-27. How should knowing this change how we pray for lost people?
7. The fifth point of the sermon was: "The gospel is unhindered". Have you ever been discouraged that the gospel doesn't seem to be transforming people around you? Read Isaiah 55:10-11. Why is it important to remember that God is accomplishing his work?
8. How can you share the gospel this week with someone? Is there someone specific that you should praying that they would understand the perceive the good news about Jesus?