

Small Group Bible Study Questions:
Meaning in our Final Days (Ecclesiastes 11:7 - 12:14).
Sermon by John Fortune. Nov.23'25

From Brendan: "These questions are a guide. You do not have to use every question. Knowing your group, go over these questions and ask God what questions you should focus on. May God bless and guide your discussions!"

- Welcome everyone and open with prayer.

Icebreaker Question:

- How have you enjoyed the series on Meaning in Ecclesiastes?
- What have been some key things you have learned?

Discussion Questions

1. What does Ecclesiastes mean by "remember your Creator," and how does this differ from simply "not forgetting God"?
2. Which part of the aging poem in Ecclesiastes 12:1–7 stood out to you, and why?
3. How have you experienced aging — your own or someone else's — as a kind of spiritual curriculum?
4. Why is the phrase "the opposite of remember is dismember" so theologically and personally meaningful?
5. What does the thief on the cross teach us about returning to God — and about God remembering us?

Application:

John said, "Ecclesiastes starts with a vapour and ends with a vision."

- After this series, is there anything in your life's vision that you want to change or re-direct?
