Client says thank you

My life before coming to Ramoth House was an absolute mess. I came to Ramoth five months after giving birth to my son Wyatt. He was taken from me at birth because I had no safe place to live and was heavy into the drugs. This has been an opportunity of a lifetime for me. Not only did I get my son back after moving here, I also am able to live and give him a quality of life any mother would want for her child. I learn something new everyday—Parenting classes have taught me so much and that's something I think would be beneficial for any first-time mom. We set goals and work towards a brighter future everyday. Money management classes have taught me to budget for what we need, and I am able to save money, which feels really good having that sense of security. Since I've been here, I am working towards rebuilding credit, I've replaced my ID's and got my taxes done. Things I haven't done in years that were all too overwhelming to do on my own. The staff are always there for support when needed and help us to get through any tough days with a smile on our faces. I wouldn't be where I am today if it weren't for this program, nor would I have opportunity to be a good mother and raise my son with the ability to give him everything he needs. I am beyond grateful for the Ramoth Program and all of the wonderful Staff here. – Chelesa & Wyatt
