Notes from a Staff Member

As Lilly looks in wonder at the lights, I think in wonder about what God has done in my life working at Ramoth.

I joined the Ramoth team in 2022, just after having my second son. I was looking for a part time job that would be flexible around my busy schedule and provided me with a sense of fulfillment. I wanted to feel like I was making an impact. Starting as a support staff and now working as the Administrative Assistant I have found peace.

Ramoth has allowed me to grow confidently and spiritually in my position here. I never take for granted how blessed I am to be apart of such an incredible ministry. -Lexi

It was such a privilege that a few of us were in attendance for her baptism and the dedication of her son on February 2nd 2025. We are so absolutely proud of this young woman and the growth in which we have seen in her life.

We are ecstatic to be serving 3 moms and 3 babies in our Step 1 program! God is so good. Each of our moms is growing personally and spiritually, engaging with their babies & participating in our various workshops. We receive regular calls and are reviewing new applications.

We have 2 moms in our Step 2 apartments, who are working hard to provide for their little ones & create meaningful community connections.

Our Step 3 program is thriving with 10 clients who we get the privilege of assisting and watch as they continue flourish into independent women.
