ABOUT UNION GOSPEL MISSION

Union Gospel Mission has been feeding hope and changing the lives of men, women, youth, and children for more than 80 years. Through its ten locations in Metro Vancouver, the Fraser Valley and Victoria, UGM provides emergency shelter, meals, outreach, career development counselling, education, safe and affordable housing, addiction recovery, and much more to those struggling with poverty, homelessness and addiction. The heart of UGM is to demonstrate God's transforming love, ease the burden of those who are vulnerable, and come alongside people who feel cast aside.

UGM's Arrow Home Women's Recovery in Victoria walks alongside women with infants up to 12 months old from stabilization and the very beginnings of their recovery journey, through to recovery and aftercare. In recovery, women receive personalized care and practical help. Alumnae, are supported toward renewed life through educational programs, and employment opportunities.

Demonstrating the love of Christ, UGM is determined to transform communities by overcoming poverty, homelessness, and addiction — one life at a time.
