CALVARY PRISON MINISTRY

...I was in prison and you came to visit me - Matthew 25:36

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Uttu Rodriguez Michael Person

No one should expect to serve the Lord Jesus without opposition. In fact, the Scripture tells us that we should expect adversity. This is the reason that Ephesians 6 tells us to put on the whole armor of God. We should never run from the battle because we fight from victory, not for victory.

This has been a season of battling the enemy as he has sought to undermine the work that God is doing in the prison. He has attacked in ways that were unexpected, but we are thankful for the reality that "greater is He that is in us than he that is in the world." 1 John 4:4. We can have confidence in our God who is able to overthrow the devices of Satan.

It is a blessing to report that we have seen a good number of men attending our services and they have a real hunger for the Word of God. We have rejoiced in answered prayers and have heard men testify to the goodness of the Lord. God is on the move and He is meeting with us as we gather in His name.

We know that your prayers for this ministry have made a difference. They sustain us as we shine the light of Jesus in this dark place. We are always thankful for your giving that enables us to preach the Gospel to the men at the Northwest Correctional Complex. Have a wonderful Thanksgiving and a blessed Christmas season celebrating the birth of our Savior.
