

The Life and Letters of Paul

1 Corinthians 6

1. In a country where Approximately 66 million lawsuits are filed, why is it that as believers we say God is in control but we then go to the government to fix our disagreements.

1 Corinthians 6:1/Matthew 18:21-22-77 times/Matthew 18:21-22- forgive as we forgive/Matthew 5:38-40- slap and coat.

2. Why do we not handle the matter amongst one another now because there will be a time when we will be Judges.

1 Corinthians 6:2-3/ Revelation 2:26- over the nations/Revelation 3:21-seated with Jesus
2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6- Judging angels

3. The most legally untrained believers, who know the Word of God and are obedient to the Spirit, are far more competent to settle disagreements between believers than the most experienced unbeliever, void of God's truth and Spirit.

1 Corinthians 6:4-5/1 Corinthians 1:27- God uses his vessels to shame the world.

4. What is the example we are setting in a broken world when we cannot get along with one another.

1 Corinthians 6:6/Matthew 5:13-16-Jesus response to a believer being prosecuted.

5. When two believers sue one another there is no winner, could you take the L?

1 Corinthians 6:7-8/Romans 16:17- disagreements are 2 options a work of the enemy/

6. Those who willingly sin have no share in the Kingdom of God. The lives of Christians must reflect the faith they confess, how is it going? We only disagree when it comes to our sin.

1 Corinthians 6:9-11/ Rom 1:26–27- God handed them over

7. When we take the grace of God for granted, we could start to rationalize a sinful life, If God made it, we could use it (drugs, alcohol and sex) your body is not yours.

1 Corinthians 6:12-14/1 Corinthians 8:9-stumbling block/romans 12:1-start with the body

8. Many times, when we are in a life of sin, we convince ourselves we are not hurting anybody, what are you joined to right now?

1 Corinthians 6:15-17/Jeremiah 50:5-They will bind themselves to the Lord

9. There are times where we can fight the flesh and overcome iniquity, but there are also times where we must lace up our shoes and simply Runnnnnnnnn.

1 Corinthians 6:18/2 Timothy 2:22-flee/1 Corinthians 10:14-flee from idolatry"/1 Timothy 6:11-flee these things

10. We need to see our bodies as we do in a church building, we act accordingly in the place of worship and do so with your own body it is priceless to treat it as such.

1 Corinthians 6:19-20/
