LOVE

Love in Action

Romans 12:9-13

*Thank You, God, for loving me and letting me share
Your love with others.*

Colossians 3:12-14

<sup>12</sup> Therefore, as God's chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience. <sup>13</sup> Bear with each other and forgive one another if any of you has a grievance against someone. Forgive as the Lord forgave you. <sup>14</sup> And over all these virtues put on love, which binds them all together in perfect unity.

Waiting in Hope

Be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, faithful in prayer. Romans 12:12

The apostle Paul urged God's people to be "devoted to one another in love . . . joyful in hope, patient in affliction, [and] faithful in prayer" as we "share with the Lord's people who are in need [and] practice hospitality" (Romans 12:10-13).

"Christmas is most truly Christmas when we celebrate it by giving the light of love to those who need it most."

Ruth Carter Stapleton

Always remember you are:
Braver than you believe
Stronger than you seem
Smarter than you think
And Loved more than you know.

Do small acts with
BIG LOVE.

*Loving God, I love
because You first loved me.
Please keep increasing my love so Your Spirit will shine through me.*

Diocesan ACW Report

December is fast approaching and with it is my sincere invitation to join us at the Cathedral on Thursday Dec. 4 at noon for mid day communion service.

Our 'reunion communion' as we fondly call it, began as a way of grouping together when parishes were slowly reopening post-COVID. In years prior ACW Life Members met annually for corporate communion on Nov. 30, the Feast Day for St. Andrew, patron saint to the ACW. Post-COVID we borrowed that tradition of a corporate worship service, and opened it up to Life Members and all ACW ladies. Yes, friends and spouses are invited too. We chose mid-day first-Thursday-in Advent service because it is in the same week as St. Andrews Day, the Bishop, our patron, already attends, it is a sung service with beautiful music, and it is open to all.

It offers a sacred opportunity for peace and reflection at the beginning of the bustling Christmas Season. If you've been before, I'm sure you will want to be there again. If you haven't ever been, I hope this is the year you will gather a friend or two together and join us on Thursday Dec 4 at noon at the Cathedral. Parking is next door, and there will be coffee and goodies afterwards in the hall.

In other news, members of the ACW Executive were pleased to join members in both Regional Meetings, the West Region, on September 27 at St. Timothy's Edmonton, and the East Region on Oct 4 at St. Mary's, Ponoka. The organizers are to be commended for all their work. Well attended, the program, food and fellowship were wonderful. Thank you all.

We look forward to hearing plans for the Regional Meetings in 2026, tentatively to be held again at St. Timothy's, in the West and Immanuel, Wetaskiwin in the East. Dates and more information to come.

The Executive has been busy with housekeeping matters: updating email lists, sorting items for archives and moving minutes, etc. into digital form for safe keeping.

We will report on this at the annual business meeting (via Zoom) May 1, 2026, followed the next day, May 2, with our annual road trip.

If your group would like to host this event, please get in touch and I can give you the details.

I wish you a blessed, hope-filled Advent Season as you gather with friends and your ACW chapters to celebrate this special season.

And I look forward to greeting you in-person at our Reunion Communion on Dec. 4.

As we gather together in this season, we thank you for the gift of time shared together. Guide us to be a light of love, peace, and hope for one another. May our conversations be filled with kindness and time together bring us closer to you. Help us on our Advent journey to slow down from the busyness and noise of the world, and to focus on the meaning of this season. Amen.

Elaine

Choral Communion at the Cathedral

Reunion Communion (only what we call it as ACW members.)

This is a Choral Communion at the Cathedral on the first Thursday of Advent. This year Dec. 4 starting at noon. EVERYONE is welcome and we would be happy to see many of you, both men and women, whether you have an ACW or not. We would appreciate it if you could let us know how many may be coming so we can plan the refreshments for after the service. Please contact Elaine with your numbers.

acw.dioceseofedmonton@gmail.com

Pay parking is right next door. Hope to see many of you – come and enjoy the Cathedral Choir and a visit with friends.

Social Action

Caring for our communities at Christmas.

In the past years, those attending the ACW Reunion Communion at the Cathedral at the beginning of Advent have been asked to bring something for missions. This year, we all know that the needs in our communities are great and we ask that our local ACW chapters focus on their own communities.

If you have a Christmas care project planned (big or small) to respond to those community needs, please send me a note to tell about it. A picture would be wonderful as well! We will be reporting on our projects in the March edition of InTouch.

Thank you!

Kathy

Education & Family Life

Prayer

Prayer is a very personal thing. Each of us will find, often through trial and error, the way that works best for us. I have not come across any wrong ways of praying. I have come across many, many helpful ways. I like having a number of forms of prayer in my prayer station. One day, one will resonate most strongly with me and another day, an alternate form may.

There are many prayers we can teach our children and grandchildren from rote. My granddaughters are learning three, including the Lord's Prayer. They start with a prayer from the heart – it often doesn't make sense to me, but I am sure God understands – and then move into their rote prayers.

An easy free-flowing style of prayer to teach our children and grandchildren is the Hand Prayer. You hold your hand, palm up, in front of you. Either touch your thumb with your other hand or wiggle it. This is our signal to go into silence, to sit still and calm all the thoughts in our mind.

When we feel ready to move on, we touch or wiggle our index finger. This is our "God" finger. This is when we open ourselves up to God, remembering how awesome God is. This is the time we sit and soak in God's love for us.

We then move on to our middle finger. This is our "sorry" finger. We bring before God the things we have done and not done that have caused harm to our relationship with God, with others, and with ourselves. We can do this confident that God's love for us is so strong, nothing can separate us from it.

Our ring finger is our "thank you" finger. Here we remember all the good things, all the learnings etc. that we have received. We thank God for these.

Our pinky is last. This is our "please" finger. Here is where we petition and intercede. We ask God for help for ourselves and for others.

I have used the simple names for the fingers, ones appropriate for children to learn. You may have recognized that these follow the form we were taught many years ago – ACTS: Adoration, Confession, Thanksgiving, and Supplication.

Rev. Ann Marie

As believers in Christ, the Spirit will provide the opportunities and empowerment to follow in Jesus' footsteps and do good works. The fruit of the Spirit's work in us is "love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness gentleness and self-control" (Galatians 5:22-23).

Life Members

We have had a beautiful fall season and at this house we are ready to take on winter. Looking forward to ice fishing with our family, we have been blessed with children who are avid outdoor enthusiasts.

For me, All Soul's Day, brings to memories all those who I have known and loved. As life member secretary I am given names of those who have passed away and on to higher service. Sadly we have lost:

- Doris Polstrup from St. Timothy's
- Good Shepherd lost three life members: Larain Williams, Mary Fiddes and Edith Braglin.
- Larain Williams -- Larain and her family were members of the Good Shepherd Church for many years. Their 3 daughters and son were baptized and confirmed in the Church on 127 St. Larain was leader of the Altar Guild for about 8 years; she sang in the choir up until the early 2000; she was leader of the Prayer Chain; was a Synod Delegate; and served on Vestry. Larain became a Life Member September 25, 2004 and passed away May 6, 2024.
- Mary Fiddes. -- Mary and her family were members of the Good Shepherd for many years. Her son and daughter were baptized in the Church on 127 St. Mary sang in the choir up until she moved to Osoyoos, BC to be near her son and daughter-in-law; she served as a Vestry member; was envelope secretary; was Rector's Warden. Mary became a Life Member September 25, 2004 and passed away October 25, 2025
- Edith Braglin -- Edith attended the Good Shepherd on 127 St., then moved to Westlock for a number of years then returned to the Church on 127 St. and was a member up until her passing. Edith served as an Altar Guild Member; was a member of the Prayer Chain. Edith became a Life Member September 28, 2004 and passed away October 28, 2025.

We remember these women for their service and dedication to God, the Church and to God's people.

East Regional Meeting in Ponoka was such a good day. We heard histories of the parishes in our regional and all the reports from these A.C.W.'s So nice to see the ladies from Wainwright. Chelsey Bowman spoke on rural ministry. Lunch was delicious, the soups were excellent. Life Member list to be as current as possible.

Looking forward to seeing many of you at the Reunion Communion. If I don't see you or hear from you may all our A.C.W. members and their families have a very Merry Christmas and a New Year filled with God's love and joy. May God Bless,
Tracey

Beaumont A.C.W.

At our October meeting at St. Columba, Beaumont A.C.W. made Anglican rosaries. Kathy (our host for the meeting) provided the materials and guidance. She followed the lesson and method taught at St. Andrew's "road trip" in May. It was a wonderful time learning a new craft and such a valuable tool for prayer.

News from St. Augustine's-Parkland ACW

This year our group has been using the theme of "Women in the Bible" for our devotional time when we meet.

At our first meeting, our theme was based on those bad and not-so-bad women of the bible and we specifically talked about Rebekah. Her "bad side" shows through when she deceives her husband to play favorites with her sons. But the word also shows that she was compassionate and generous. So when we take a closer look, Rebekah was "a little bad and a little good" – much like we are today. More about Rebekah can be found in the Book of Genesis. Or, if you are looking for a fun commentary on women of the Bible, please check out the book "Slightly Bad Girls of the Bible" by Liz Curtis Higgs.

The theme for our next meeting was "nameless women of the Bible". Groups of nameless women appear throughout many bible passages and when a person takes a closer look, they show courage, great faith and often a unity of cause for what is good. We focused in on the group of nameless women midwives who saved babies from death under Pharaoh's rule. They followed their belief and did what was needed at great personal risk to themselves. These women worked quietly and tirelessly in the background to help their community. (Does that sound familiar to our ACW groups?) The story of these nameless women can be found in Exodus Chapter 1 & 2.

We are looking forward to exploring more about the women of the bible at our meetings in the New Year.

World Day of Prayer

Greetings all

I am writing on behalf of ACW Edmonton President, Elaine Dickie, to request your thoughtful consideration of either “hosting” or ‘participating in’ the 2026 World Day of Prayer.

We do know that a few of our Branches have, over the years, participated in the World Day of Prayer on a rotation with other churches in their community, while others have continued to host the event and extend an invitation to others. The Executive believes this is a worthy extension of our mission as ACW members and would encourage you to participate in whatever method would work best for you.

Attached is the latest information President Elaine has received from the WICC Organizing Committee regarding preparation for the celebrations in 2026. I would note, from personal experience, that while in the past it was always celebrated on the First Friday of March – in recent years there has been a much more flexible schedule and the celebration can be held at a time that is more convenient for the local community.

Margaret

Blessings on your day,

Margaret, Recording Secretary

Diocesan ACW Board – Edmonton

Diocesan Prayer Partners

Edmonton Diocese is to pray for Diocese of BC's Islands and Inlets

History of the Diocese

For thousands of years these islands and inlets have been home to the Kwakwaka'wakw, the Nuuchah-nulth and Coast Salish peoples. European fur traders arrived on these lands now known as British Columbia in the 18th century and established trading posts. By the 1820s the Hudson's Bay Company, with its headquarters in Victoria, owned a monopoly on fur trading in the Pacific Northwest. Company chaplains began delivering Anglican services in the colonies in the 1830s.

Establishing the diocese

The Diocese of British Columbia was created in 1859 by royal decree. The diocese originally covered the colonies of Vancouver Island and British Columbia. The first and longest serving bishop of the diocese was Bishop George Hills, who was consecrated by the Archbishop of Canterbury in 1859. Until the creation of the Anglican Church of Canada in 1893, Anglican bishops in Canada were under the authority of the Archbishop of Canterbury. The diocese did not have its own governing body, known as a synod, until Bishop Hills called a governing assembly, also called a synod, in 1875. Synods were not held in England and colonial influence meant there was some resistance. Not all parishes sent delegates and not all clergy attended. However, enough did attend and the Anglican Synod of the Diocese of British Columbia was born.

Dividing up the diocese

In 1879, the synod divided the diocese into three. The Diocese of Caledonia covered the north mainland. The Diocese of New Westminster covered the south mainland. And the Diocese of British Columbia, despite its name, only covers Vancouver Island, the Gulf Islands and Kingcome Inlet. In 2021, the diocese adopted the official operating name, the Diocese of Islands and Inlets. The eastern part of New Westminster was further divided into the Diocese of Kootenay in 1899 and the Diocese of Cariboo in 1914. All five dioceses, as well as the Diocese of Yukon, are part of the Ecclesiastical Province of British Columbia and Yukon, which was established in 1911.

Qu'Appelle Diocese is to pray for Edmonton

The Diocese of Qu'Appelle is the southern part of Saskatchewan including Regina.

The Diocese of Islands and Inlets

We are a local expression of the Anglican Communion ministering on Vancouver Island, across the Gulf Islands of the Salish Sea (Strait of Georgia), Broughton Archipelago and Kingcome Inlet through forty-five worshipping communities.

From Willa

Hello ladies, another 3 months and a whole year have flown by. I had a busy week – something to do every day. I take a friend walking 3 days a week. This week included a trip to Khulmann's (for potatoes for me) but they have the Christmas items out so lots to look at there; then Thursday we went to Gibbons (our church serves soup & a bun on Thursday's) and Saturday we went out for my birthday supper (schnitzel) plus 2 craft sales on Saturday too.

I really hope you will try to come on Dec. 4 at noon to the Choral communion at the Cathedral. It is a wonderful time with the choir singing. Please let Elaine know how many may be coming so she can make sure for goodies after the service.

I wish each of you a wonderful and Blessed Christmas and may your New Year be full of much health and happiness.

Faithfully
Willa

*May your spirit rejoice in the wonder of His
