AS WE GATHER

As we gather during this holy Advent season, we hear again the voice crying in the wilderness: "Prepare the way of the Lord." God calls His people to repentance—not to burden us, but to clear away the cluttered places of our hearts and make room for the coming King. Through the preaching of John the Baptist and the promises of Isaiah, we are reminded that Christ comes to dwell with the repentant, bringing comfort, forgiveness, and hope in His mercy.

OPENING PRAYER

(Please Rise)

INVOCATION

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen

PSALM 89

Behold, your king is coming to you;
righteous and having salvation.

Who in the skies can be compared to the Lord?
Who among the heavenly beings is like the Lord?

Righteousness and justice are the foundation of your throne;
Steadfast love and faithfulness go before you.

Blessed are the people who know the festal shout,
Who walk, O Lord, in the light of your face,

Who exult in your name all the day
And in your righteousness are exalted.

For our shield belongs to the Lord,
Our king to the Holy One of Israel.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit'
As it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

OPENING HYMN: "Comfort, Comfort Ye My People" LSB#347

THE LIGHTING OF THE ADVENT WREATH

John the Baptist cried, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand."
Therefore, we light this candle as a call to prepare the way of the Lord.

Create in us clean hearts, O God.

Turn us from sin to the mercy of Christ.

Amen
