GENESIS 12:1-3

[1] Now the LORD said to Abram, “Go from your country and your kindred and your father’s house to the land that I will show you. [2] And I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you and make your name great, so that you will be a blessing. [3] I will bless those who bless you, and him who dishonors you I will curse, and in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed.” (ESV)

Reflection Questions:

1. Where do you feel “the curse” in your daily life right now? Where do you feel frustration and futility, effects of sin and death, or shame, anxiety or emptiness? What do you think God wants you to hear today?
2. Is there something you need to do (like how Abraham left his home) to be blessed so that you can bless others around you?
3. Who in your everyday life needs God’s peace right now? (A stressed family member, a lonely friend, a co-worker, a classmate, even your own child?) What is one concrete, realistic step you can take this Advent to bring Christ’s blessing to that person?

2. Advent: The One who will bless all nations
