The Advent of Peace

Behind that humble manger and quiet night, a _____ was erupting in the heavenly realm.

The _____ that sustains us through life's challenges comes from Christ enthroned on high- the King of kings and Lord of lords.

Spiritual oppression, sin, and death are on their heels, and Christ's _____ is being extended to his people.

Our peace was won through the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ, now _____ on high.- Isaiah 9:6

You and I can rest in the peace of King Jesus because He gives His followers miraculous _____.

We're all receiving and implementing _____ counsel.

_____, according to Scripture, are not flesh and blood but principalities and powers in this present darkness.

Even as the enemy attempts to destroy us, those very attacks become trophies of God's grace and serve His plan to seek and save the _____.

Deuteronomy 10:17; Psalm 24:8; Exodus 15:3; 1 Corinthians 15:24-25

In Jesus we have an eternal shoulder to cry on and an eternal defender of our souls... this is where our _____ comes from.

Christ's reign establishes peace over three primary enemies: spiritual _____, sin, and death.

We'll need _____ in eternity to grasp just how good, powerful, lovely, and beautiful Jesus is.

In a world that seems increasingly chaotic, where peace seems elusive, we can stand firm in the knowledge that the battle has already been _____!
