Fourth Sunday in Advent

December 21, 2025

Today's lessons:

- Isaiah 7:10-16 In a situation where Israel is threatened by powerful enemies God promises a sign: a young woman will give birth to a child and the name of this child will be 'Immanuel', which means 'God is with us.'
- Psalm 80:1-7, 17-19 The people of Israel pray to God, asking him to stop being angry with them.
- Romans 1:1-7 At the begin of his Letter to the Romans Paul introduces himself as an apostle (= messenger) of the Gospel of Jesus Christ who was as a human being a descendant of King David, and through his resurrection from the dead was found also to be God's own Son.
- Matthew 1:18-25 Joseph discovers that his fiancée Mary is pregnant, but not from him. In a dream an angel tells him not to send Mary away because the child is from the Holy Spirit. In this child the old prophecy of Isaiah 7 is fulfilled.

Psalm 80 is one of the psalms that have a kind of refrain, a line that appears repeatedly and is of special importance.

Find the words from the psalm and the first 13 of the remaining letters reveal that refrain:
