

JOY TO THE WORLD!

Christmas Eve

December 24, 2025 3:00 pm

Prelude

Christmas Greeting

*Hymn O Come All Ye Faithful verses 1, 3 UMH 234

Advent Wreath and Christ Candle Lighting

O Come, O Come, Emmanuel
And ransom captive Israel, that mourns in lonely exile here
until the Son of God appear.

We light the Christ candle, thankful that God has come to us, not as a conquering hero but as a child, whose faithful, peaceful life will follow God's way of love.

Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come to thee, O Israel.

Unison Prayer:

Living God, come to our world, may the love of Christ shine brightly, at the center of our lives, spreading warmth and light, in us, in this congregation, and everywhere. Amen.

A Service of Lessons and Carols

Christmas Carol What Child Is This? verses 1 and 2 UMH 219

Lesson 1 Acts 17:22-34a God revealed in Creation

Our first reading tells of God, spreading time and space, and of ourselves, needing God, in a world gone wrong. Hear now the words of the Apostle Paul, who visits the Greek city of Athens, debates with philosophers, and proclaims the One true God.

Special Music I've Heard About You Lyle Muller

Lesson 2 Psalm 146

Long before Jesus was born, God's Holy Name was revealed to the people of Israel. As descendants of Abraham, Christians, Muslims, and Jews worship One God but each have different stories. Our story as Christians is founded on the story of the Jews because Jesus expressed what his people already knew about God.

From the Psalms - songs of ancient Israel, we learn that God is not only awesome but also active 'not neutral, but involved' not a detached creator, but God among us, longing to see justice done and the humble lifted high.

Here ends our reading of the second lesson. Let us pray and work and hope for justice, kindness and 'peace on earth, goodwill to all'.

Christmas Carol O Little Town of Bethlehem verses 1 and 2 UMH 230

Lesson 3 The Birth of Jesus, Emmanuel Luke 2:1-8

We believe that in Jesus of Nazareth, the Great Holy One, creator of the universe, came to be with us, as one of us, not just to be seen and touched and known, but to do something, to make a difference: to us and to the whole world.

We shall hear how Jesus was born, what kind of person he became, and what his life reveals to us. The Gospel of Luke tells about Jesus' birth and who greeted him.

Hymn Away in A Manger UMH 217

Gospel Lesson Luke 2:8-20

Luke continues the story with a great celebration – the whole heavenly host turned out to celebrate his birth, while his mother committed everything to memory.

All: Glory to God in the Highest!

We give thanks this night for the birth of the Messiah!

Doxology What Child is this verse 3 UMH 219

So bring him incense, gold, and myrrh, come, peasant, king, to own Him.
The King of Kings salvation brings. Let loving hearts enthroned Him.
This, this is Christ the King whom shepherds guard and angels sing.
Haste, haste to bring him laud the Babe, the Son of Mary.

Lesson 4 Matthew 14:13b-21

Jesus' story would be a mere blip in history, forgotten long since if it weren't for the great things he did as an adult. Many thought that Jesus' way was not easy, but because he was faithful Jesus ushered in a new way of being, a way based on compassion, justice and love.

Christmas Carol O Little Town of Bethlehem verses 3 and 4 UMH 230

The Sacrament of Holy Communion

Prayer Of Confession and Pardon

Merciful God, we confess that often we find darkness more comfortable than light. We confess that we find your good news frightening and unsettling, especially when we consider its demands as well as its promises. We confess that Christmas has become more to us than the birthday of the Christ, partly because we do not want a Christ-Child in our lives or in our world.

Forgive us, break us, bend us, remake us. Give us the courage to lay ourselves open to the wonder and healing of your coming. Be born again into our world, be born again into our hearts and lives. Hear now our silent and personal confessions as we prepare ourselves for your nativity.

Assurance of Pardon

The true light that enlightens all has come into the world. That light shines on in the darkness, and the darkness has never been able to put it out. This is the good news: God has heard our confession. God has forgiven our sin.

Thanks be to God! Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil:
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

You will be invited by the ushers to move to one of the communion stations to receive a piece of bread which you will then dip in the cup and partake. As you come forward for communion, you're invited to bring a strip of cloth to lay in the manger, to make room for Emmanuel, God with us.

Prayer after Receiving Communion

May the Christ who by his Incarnation gathered into One all things both earthly and heavenly, fill us with the sweetness of inward peace and goodwill. Amen

Candlelight and Silent Night

UMH 221

Closing Prayer

Benediction

By the tender mercy of our God love has broken upon us!
Light is given where once there was darkness
and hope where there was only death.

We go into this season knowing that God will guide our feet into the way of peace.
And for this reason we are able to repeat the sounding Joy!
