

Discussion Questions

Psalm 65

What stood out to you in the teaching and/or in the reading of this Psalm?

Why is it essential for Christians to be characterized by praise and thanksgiving? What does this say about God? What does it say about us? What does it communicate to the world?

What attributes of God can you see in this Psalm? How can a correct view of God deliver us from fear and anxiety?

God has the power to calm the raging seas and to calm the chaos in our lives. What are some situations on your heart to pray for God's intervention? Do you struggle to believe He can bring true change?

What are practical ways we can increase our awe for God through His creation? Do our screens help or hinder our pursuit of God and awe of God?

What truths in this Psalm encourage your heart? Which truths challenge you?

