The Nativity of Our Lord
Christmas Eve

December 24, 2025
5:00 p.m. and 7:00 p.m.

O, Come let us adore Him

We gather this evening in the darkness of winter to proclaim the coming of God's Light. The prophet Isaiah announces that the people who walked in darkness have seen a great light (Isaiah 9:2). In the familiar account of Jesus Christ's birth, the evening sky is bright with the angelic host singing, "Glory to God in the highest!" Amid the worry and stress of our world, we proclaim that the Prince of Peace is born among us. God comes to us in human flesh as a baby in a manger and comes again every time God's love is proclaimed in Jesus Christ. May we be bearers of divine light to all the world!

Welcome

Welcome to worship this Christmas Eve!

You may have entered this sanctuary on this holy day filled with joy and gratitude for all of God's blessings in your life...

You may have entered here with a particular concern or sadness, grief or worry, weighing on your heart...

You may have entered this space simply to participate in a tradition that connects us with something bigger than us—God's presence in worship with others...

Here you are in the presence of a forgiving God and among a community that tries to live out Christ's compassion.

Every Sunday of the year we gather here around the Good News of Jesus Christ that is proclaimed by the angels and shepherds.

Every Sunday the Holy Spirit is here, lifting hearts, challenging minds, renewing us for daily living.

Welcome!

St. Paul said, "In Christ, there is neither Jew nor Greek, slave nor free, male nor female... all are one in Christ" (Galatians 3:27).

Or as we say every Sunday here at Saint Matthew's, "Wherever you are in your journey of faith, you are welcome here!"

God's peace be with you, and Merry Christmas!

Isaiah 7:14

THE STORY OF MARY

Luke 1:26-35

In the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent by God to a town in Galilee called Nazareth, to a virgin engaged to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David. The virgin's name was Mary. And he came to her and said, "Greetings, favored one! The Lord is with you." But she was much perplexed by his words, and pondered what sort of greeting this might be. The angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God. And now, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you will name him Jesus. He will be great, and will be called the Son of the Most High, and the Lord God will give to him the throne of his ancestor David. He will reign over the house of Jacob forever, and of his kingdom there will be no end." And Mary said to the angel, "How can this be, since I am a virgin?" The angel said to her, "The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you; therefore the child to be born will be holy; he will be called the Son of God. "Then Mary said, "Here am I, the servant of the Lord; let it be with me according to your word."

A. The word of the Lord.

C. Thanks be to God.

PRAYER

A: Let us pray.

Almighty God, in choosing the virgin Mary to be the mother of your Son, you made known your gracious regard for the poor and lowly. Grant us grace to imitate her willingness and to receive your Word in humility, through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

HYMN

What Child Is This

What child is this, who, laid to rest,
on Mary's lap is sleeping?
Whom angels greet with anthems sweet while shepherds watch are keeping?
This, this is Christ the king,
whom shepherds guard and angels sing;
haste, haste to bring him laud,
the babe, the son of Mary!

Why lies he in such mean estate
where ox and ass are feeding?
Good Christian, fear; for sinners here
the silent Word is pleading.
Nails, spear shall pierce him through,
the cross be borne for me, for you;
hail, hail the Word made flesh,
the babe, the son of Mary!

So bring him incense, gold, and myrrh;
come, peasant, king, to own him.
The King of kings salvation brings;
let loving hearts enthrone him.
Raise, raise the song on high,
the virgin sings her lullaby;
joy, joy, for Christ is born,
the babe, the son of Mary!

II. ON THE ROAD

A: A shoot shall come out from the stump of Jesse.

C: And a branch shall grow out of his roots.

A: The spirit of the Lord shall rest on him.

C: The spirit of wisdom and understanding.

A: The spirit of counsel and might.

C: The spirit of knowledge and awe of the Lord.

Isaiah 11:1-2

THE STORY OF JOSEPH

Matthew 1:18-21

Now the birth of Jesus the Messiah took place in this way. When his mother Mary had been engaged to Joseph, but before they lived together, she was found to be with child from the Holy Spirit. Her husband Joseph, being a righteous man and unwilling to expose her to public disgrace, planned to dismiss her quietly. But just when he had resolved to do this, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, and said, "Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary as your wife, for the child conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit. She will bear a son, and you are to name him Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins."

A. The word of the Lord.

C. Thanks be to God.

PRAYER

A: Let us pray.

O God, from the family of your servant David you raised up Joseph to be the guardian of your Son and the spouse of his virgin mother: Give us grace to imitate his uprightness and his obedience to your commands; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

HYMN

O Little Town of Bethlehem

O little town of Bethlehem, how still we see thee lie!
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep the silent stars go by;
Yet in thy dark streets shineth the everlasting Light;
The hopes and fears of all the years are met in thee tonight.

For Christ is born of Mary, and gathered all above,
While mortals sleep, the angels keep their watch of wondering love.
O morning stars, together proclaim the holy birth!
And praises sing to God the King, and peace to all the earth.

III. IN BETHLEHEM

A: But you, O Bethlehem of Ephrathah, who are one of the little clans of Judah

C: from you shall come forth for me one who is to rule in Israel

A: whose origin is from old, from ancient days.

C: And he shall stand and shepherd his flock in the strength of the Lord.

A: For then his greatness will reach to the ends of the earth,

C: And he shall be the one of peace.

Micah 5:2-5a (excerpts)

THE STORY OF JESUS' BIRTH IN BETHLEHEM

Luke 2:1-7

In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. All went to their own towns to be registered. Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn.

A. The word of the Lord.

C. Thanks be to God.

CHILDREN'S SERMON

IV. IN THE FIELDS

A: Get you up to a high mountain, O Zion, herald of good tidings.

C: Lift up your voice with strength, O Jerusalem, herald of good tidings.

A: Lift it up, do not fear.

C: Say to the cities of Judah, "Here is your God!"

Isaiah 10:9

THE STORY OF THE ANGELS AND SHEPHERDS

Luke 2:8-14

In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid; for see I am bringing you good news of a great joy for all the people; to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger." And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace among those whom he favors!"

A. The word of the Lord.

C. Thanks be to God.

PRAYER

A: Let us pray,
Gracious Lord, in coming down from heaven into our world you humbled yourself, and the news was given first to humble shepherds. May we humble ourselves that we may see and hear the angels' song in the world and people around us; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE STORY OF JESUS

Luke 2: 15-20

When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, ‘Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us.’ ¹⁶So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger. ¹⁷When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child; ¹⁸and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them. ¹⁹But Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart. ²⁰The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

A. The word of the Lord.

Who in the night in which he was betrayed,

took bread, and gave thanks; broke it,

and gave it to his disciples, saying:

Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.

Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying:

This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.

Do this for the remembrance of me.

Together let us proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

With this bread and cup we remember your Word dwelling among us,

CANDLELIGHT READING

John 1:1-5, 10-18

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. ²He was in the beginning with God. ³All things came into being through him, and without him not one thing came into being. What has come into being ⁴in him was life, and the life was the light of all people. ⁵The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it.

¹⁰ The true light was in the world, and the world came into being through him; yet the world did not know him. ¹¹He came to what was his own, and his own people did not accept him. ¹²But to all who received him, who believed in his name, he gave power to become children of God, ¹³who were born, not of blood or of the will of the flesh or of the will of man, but of God.

¹⁴ And the Word became flesh and lived among us, and we have seen his glory, the glory as of a father's only son, full of grace and truth. ¹⁶From his fullness we have all received, grace upon grace. ¹⁷The law indeed was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. ¹⁸No one has ever seen God. It is God the only Son, who is close to the Father's heart, who has made him known.

Round yon virgin mother and child. Holy infant so tender and mild, Sleep in heavenly peace. Sleep in heavenly peace.

Glories stream from heaven afar, heavenly hosts sing alleluia;
Christ the Saviour, is born! Christ the Saviour, is born!

Silent night, holy night, Son of God, love's pure light
Radiant beams from your holy face, with the dawn of redeeming grace, Jesus, Lord, at your birth. Jesus, Lord, at your birth.

THE BLESSING

P: The God of love,
Creator, ✠ Son, and Spirit,
lavish you with grace, illumine your path, and increase your joy, today and always.

C. Amen.

Joy to The World

Joy to the world! The Lord is come! Let earth receive her King.
Let every heart prepare him room.
And heaven and nature sing, and heaven and nature sing
And heaven, and heaven and nature sing.

Let all their songs employ,
while fields and floods, rocks, hills, and plains
repeat the sounding joy, repeat, repeat the sounding joy.

No more let sin and sorrow grow, nor thorns infest the ground.
He comes to make His blessings flow,
Far as the curse is found, far as the curse is found,
Far as, far as the curse is found.

The glories of His righteousness
And wonders of his love, and wonders of his love,
And wonders and wonders of his love.
