

The Cornerstone

The stone which the builders rejected has become the head of the corner. This is the Lord's doing; it is marvelous in our eyes.

2025 OUTREACH COMMITTEE THANK YOU

Once again, the congregation has allowed the light of Christ to shine throughout the world by responding with Christian love in its generous support of the many missions and projects that have helped our neighbors both near and far. You gave generously to the monthly Communion offerings, continued your steadfast support of the annual CROP Walk, kept the Mercy Center food pantry stocked, allowed families to share a beautiful Thanksgiving dinner together with your gifts to the Mercy Center Thanksgiving food basket ministry, knitted up a storm, and most recently adopted 25 adults and children as part of the Adopt-A-Family project that will allow those families to enjoy a Merry Christmas. On behalf of those lives that have been touched by your Christian generosity, the Outreach Committee would like to thank each member of this congregation. Your acts of love honors God. We hope that you and your families have a very Merry Christmas and a happy, healthy and blessed New Year.

I Heard the Bells on Christmas Day

I heard the bells on Christmas day
Their old familiar carols play,
And wild and sweet the words repeat
Of peace on earth, good will to men.

I thought how, as the day had come,
The belfries of all Christendom
Had rolled along th'unbroken song
Of peace on earth, good will to men.

And in despair I bowed my head:
"There is no peace on earth," I said,
"For hate is strong, and mocks the song
Of peace on earth, good will to men."

Then pealed the bells more loud and deep:
"God is not dead, nor doth He sleep;
The wrong shall fail, the right prevail,
With peace on earth, good will to men."

Till, ringing, singing on its way,
The world revolved from night to day
A voice, a chime, a chant sublime,
Of peace on earth, good will to men.
