*Choral Introit	Joy to the World	Verse 1	by Congregation
*Call to Worship	Susan Woods
Now that the mad rush is over, O center of stillness and peace: Now that the needles are falling from the tree, We thank you that you are still God-with-us. As we face the year ahead, help us to accept the difficult parts of our lives; help us to make the changes we must make; bring us to new places of openness and love toward you and the people around us.
*Hymn	O Come, All Ye Faithful	UMH 234
Opening Prayer
Almighty and merciful God, with great love and power you say to us on this last Sunday of the year—"The past is forgiven." What we were, our sin and failures are no more, confronted by your grace. Your forgiveness covers our hang-ups with religion. But your comforting and redeeming presence allows us to feel loved. And your love says to us "The Future is Open". In the coming new year, melt us and mold us according to your will. Amen.

Congregational Appreciation

The Altar Guild is thankful for all who have given flowers in honor or in memory of those in their lives. Thank you for making our church look extra special for Christmas.

Please take your sponsored flowers home with you!

If you would like to help place flowers on the Altar, consider a donation to the flower fund. The altar guild would like to invite you to sponsor the altar flowers. Each vase costs $25. When you sponsor the altar flowers, you may do so in memory or in honor of someone or a special event or anniversary. Go to stoutmemorial.org/altarflowers for more information.

The Stout Memorial Altar Flower ministry needs smiling faces to deliver Sunday flowers. A sign-up sheet is on the welcome desk in the Gathering space along with directions for delivery. Presenting flowers helps to create smiles.

Our Mission:

We exist to see all people find Hope, Healing, and Wholeness through Jesus Christ.

Slaughter of the Innocents

Given Herod's well-known unpredictability and cruelty, modern historians often find it entirely plausible that he would order the killing of a small number of children in a rural region like Bethlehem. The relatively low population of Bethlehem at the time might have yielded a small number of victims-thus not attracting widespread attention or official record in other historical works. Nevertheless, the historical record of Herod's violent reign corroborates the manner of tyrannical behavior seen in Matthew's Gospel.
