

LIBRARY NEWS -- It's that time again! Can you hear the bell?

The First Bethel Library has nearly 90 Christmas books. We have the most famous titles for this special time of year. For readers of all ages. Dozens on the lower shelves for children. Our Christmas treasures include:

THE POLAR EXPRESS - A magical journey and a mystical bell.

CHRISTMAS DAY IN THE MORNING – A farm boy gives a gift of love in this favorite of readers for decades. Its paintings have been praised as magnificent – and there are hidden pictures in the clouds. By Nobel and Pulitzer winner Pearl Buck and acclaimed artist Mark Buehner.

A TREASURY OF CHRISTMAS MIRACLES: True Stories of God's Presence. By inspirational storyteller Karen Kingsbury.

A CUP OF CHRISTMAS TEA – An annual favorite at First Bethel.

A SHEPHERD'S SONG – Troubled Tom Shepherd becomes an unlikely hero in snowy Pittsburgh. Reviewers say this story will put you in a holiday mood and “set your soul to singing.” The writer is Janice Lane Palko, who grew up in Pittsburgh.

THE LITTLEST REINDEER - Is she too little to help Santa?

HOW THE GRINCH STOLE CHRISTMAS. By Dr. Seuss.

THE CHRISTMAS CANDLE. By Max Lucado

*And dozens more. Please come to our Library in the Narthex. MERRY CHRISTMAS !!
