- They must be at least 23 years old,
- They must have been part of the church for at least one year,
- They should faithfully give tithes and offerings and
- They should have a cooperative attitude, and attend church regularly.

Duties of the Church Board:

- The church board is in charge of making sure the church's business, money, and property are managed properly. They carry out the mission of the church according to our official documents.
