A Word from Pastor Jay

Happy New Year! As we move into the year 2026 (could that really be true?) we go through a time of transition. One year folds into another, and while many things move forward as before, some things cause us pause as we recognize that there is a newness to it all. Even something as simple as writing the correct year on our checks takes a bit of concentrated forethought to get things correct. Some of us try to live our lives in a new way through New Year's resolutions or greater resolve to reform or retool how we live. Some of us put behind us the disappointments or trials of the previous year with an outlook that hits a reset button moving forward. Moving from one year to another often brings with it an understanding that we are moving through a time of transition. At least some things become new again.

As I think about this transition and the approach of 2026, my mind moves toward making things new again. On January 11, we will celebrate the Baptism of our Lord, a festival day in the church during which we celebrate the baptism of Jesus and focus on the wonder of baptism as a gift in our lives. The Apostle Paul had some very uplifting things to say about baptism, things which can shape our understanding of our faith and of our relationship with God. Paul shares his thinking that "Therefore we were buried with him (Jesus) by baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we also might walk in newness of life." (Romans 6:4) Paul's idea is that in the waters of baptism we are made new by the love and grace of God and refreshed so that we can move forward free from the constraints of sin and death and live fully as God's children unleashed upon the earth. Martin Luther loved this idea so much that it became a central point of his theology of the Christian life, that in baptism we are set free. Luther wanted everyone to know that, while we are baptized once in water and the Word, baptism itself is a daily event. When we remember that we have been baptized, and trust in the promises of freedom and life that God gives us in the sacrament, we are refreshed and renewed and energized to enter into the world, prepared to serve and to share God's love wherever we go. We no longer need to fear for ourselves, because God has claimed us and set us free from our bondage to sin and death and has raised us to this new life in which we can focus on service to others. So, for Luther, baptism is a daily event in which we remember and take on its promises as we take on the new day.

January 11 also stands out as a celebration of the new in a different way for us at Apostles. On that day we will celebrate the retirement of our debt. It is set to happen on this day when we celebrate baptism because our debt retirement also serves as a freeing event in a way. As we celebrate our release from the bondage of a financial debt, we are freed to use our resources to serve, to act in the world in ways that share God's love with our neighbors, our community and our world. Thank you to all who were able to help us to meet this goal through your contributions, your care and your prayers. To be set free is a wonderful thing. As we enter this new year, we doubly are unleashed and sent into the world as bearers of God's good news.

Each day provides us with opportunities. The first opportunity is the opportunity to remember that we are baptized and that we are loved by God no matter what. Each day also provides us with the opportunity to shape how we will live actively as a child of God in the world understanding the freedom God has given us. As a congregation, we are blessed with many opportunities to carry God's love into the world. How we shape our ministries this year, using the freedom we have to serve, using the resources God has given us and using our talents and the possibilities that present themselves becomes our thoughtful response to God's blessings in our lives. May God guide us in our journey as we move forward, freed to love, freed to serve and freed to live fully in the name of our Lord, Jesus.

Jubilee Churches News

The Jubilee Churches of Gloucester, a coalition of several congregations in Gloucester (including Apostles), will be meeting again in February on February 11th at 9:30 AM at the Church of St. Therese Roman Catholic Church. The Rev. Dr. Ed Walker, pastor of Bellamy United Methodist Church, is the covener of the Jubilee Churches of Gloucester. In December, Jubilee Churches assisted 4 households with $557.23 in Dominion Power assistance. In December, Jubilee Churches were able to assist a 70-year-old woman in our community who was at risk of losing power in her home. After an unexpected hospital stay and ongoing medication costs, she fell behind on her electric bill. Living with COPD, uninterrupted electricity is essential to her health and safety. Jubilee Churches support helped prevent a power shutoff, allowing her to remain safely in her home and focus on her health instead of crisis. This assistance provided not only financial relief, but peace of mind and hope during a vulnerable season. Your giving keeps neighbors safe, housed, and cared for—thank you for being part of that impact.

If you would like to learn more about Jubilee Churches, please contact Pete Liljeberg or Janet Gomez.

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity

Please make plans to join us for a Week of Prayer for Christian Unity the week of January 19th – January 24th. This year, there will be opportunities each day during the week to gather at different churches for worship, scripture reading and prayer in addition to the Christian unity worship service itself. The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity Worship service will be held on Thursday, January 22nd, at 7:00 PM at Newington Baptist Church. A reception in the fellowship hall will follow the service. An offering will be received during the service for the Jubilee Fund.

Monday, January 19th, 2:00 PM - First United Baptist Church

Tuesday, January 20th, 12:15-12:45 PM – Brown bag lunch at Ware Episcopal Church

Wednesday, January 21st, 12:15 PM-12:45 PM, Brown bag lunch at The Church of St. Therese Roman Catholic Church

Thursday, January 22nd, 12:15 PM-12:45 PM, Brown bag lunch at Newington Baptist Church

Thursday, January 22nd – unity service at Newington Baptist Church at 7:00 PM

Friday, January 23rd, 12:15 PM-12:45 PM, brown bag lunch at Grace Covenant Presbyterian Church

Saturday, January 24th, 12:15 PM-12:45 PM, brown bag lunch at Susanna Wesley United Methodist Church.

The Jubilee Churches are planning this wonderful opportunity to join with neighboring churches for a time of prayer and worship. The theme is taken from Ephesians 4:4, "There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the one hope of your calling." There is a powerful witness to the transformative power of the Holy Spirit when Christians of varied backgrounds come together with a shared goal and vision with authenticity and sincerity. The rainbow sign of covenant with God becomes realized in the unity of the Church.

A Message from Ben and Margaret Grimes

Dear Apostles, Hope your Holiday Season was filled with comfort and joy! It is difficult for us to make this announcement but as of the 21st of January 2026 we will be returning to our hometown, Baltimore, Maryland. Our strategic plan upon moving from Baltimore to Gloucester, which occurred in 2016, was to spoil our first grandson and to find a place of worship that was welcoming and met our spiritual needs. We were extremely successful completing both! Thank you for accepting us and thank you for all that Apostles' does for the Gloucester community and beyond. It has been a refreshing and gratifying experience and I hope we have made a small contribution to the Apostles' Mission Statement. Our new address is 719 Maiden Choice Lane, Apt BR141, Catonsville, Maryland 21228. Love & Peace Ben & Margaret

(Editor's Note: We will have a "Farewell and Godspeed" for Ben and Margaret during the worship service on Sunday, January 18th—we hope you can join us!)

An Update on Heidi Henderson

As many of you are aware, Heidi Henderson recently suffered a house fire that has caused extensive damage to her home. As part of our family here at Apostles, we want to walk with her during these difficult days. In order to help, Council has set up a fund to help Heidi navigate the uncertain days ahead. While there is a GoFundMe page for the community this fund at Apostles would not extract a fee, and Heidi would have access for necessary purchases over the future weeks and months. If you would like to donate to this fund please send or give your contribution in an envelope marked "Heidi Support Fund" and we will make it available for future use. Because of the arrangements with her insurance company, Heidi does have a place to stay (fully furnished) until April, so at this time does not need furniture. We anticipate that she will be in need of furniture and other items when she moves into a more permanent place after that.

A Day For All People

Now more than ever, it is important for Christians to speak up for those who have no voice or whose voice is not heard. Jesus calls us to feed the hungry and clothe the poor, and visit those in jail. You can advocate for people who do not have the time, energy, or know-how to advocate for themselves. On January 21st, a group from Apostles will join the faithful from all over Virginia in Richmond to learn how to advocate for others. After a variety of seminars, participants will have the opportunity to speak to their representatives about important matters coming before our state assembly. It is a fun day and a contingent from the Virginia Synod will gather together during the breaks. Please take a look at the link below and register if you are interested. Speak to Betsy Liljeberg or Linda Hodges if you have any questions.
