FAQ: HARD QUESTIONS PEOPLE ASK

Is Paul telling women to shut up in church?

- No. Earlier in the same letter, women are praying and prophesying. Paul is correcting interruptions and disorder, not banning women from speaking.

Why does Paul focus on women in 1 Corinthians 14?

- Because that was the specific problem in Corinth. Paul also tells men and prophets to be silent when they disrupt. The rule is about order, not gender.

Does submission mean obeying sinful or abusive commands?

- No. Biblical submission never supports abuse, fear, or sin.

Is submission about control?

- No. Control is the result of sin. Submission is the fruit of love.

Why does God care so much about order?

- Because confusion blocks truth. Peace helps people hear the gospel.
- Because pride destroys communities, but humility builds them.

Final Word

Submission is not a dirty word. It is a redeemed word.

When shaped by Christ, submission restores what sin shattered—and the world sees a better way.
