GHANA MISSION TRIP

We are delighted to partner with brother Ken Kesse in the good work being done in our Lord's kingdom in Ghana. Our mission trip this year includes a lectureship at Accra Road church of Christ in Kumasi, a Bible Camp / Lectureship for brethren throughout the Ahafo, Bono, and Bono East regions of Ghana (held in Nkoranza), and an Evangelistic Campaign in Nante. While at the Bible Camp, I will be able to teach a class to the preacher students from the four schools of preaching we support (Kumasi, Nkoranza, Sunyani, and Techiman). We will be studying lessons from my book, In God's Image. The campaign will include door-to-door evangelism, evening preaching, personal Bible studies, and basic medical care (especially for children in the village). Please pray for souls to be won to Christ from these efforts. To God be the glory!

Nante is the village where we recently built a church building and drilled a well. The picture on the right was taken at the first worship service held in the building.

I look forward to giving a report and sharing more pictures very soon.

May God Bless You All!

IMITATE WHAT IS GOOD

by Chad Ramsey

The word “imitate” means to copy. Thus, when an individual is imitating the actions of another, he or she is copying or mimicking those actions. This, of course, is one of the ways that we learn. Parents are especially aware that children learn as much, if not more, by watching what they do rather than listening to what they say. No wonder Paul encouraged the Ephesians to “be imitators of God as dear children” (Ephesians 5:1).

But when it comes to imitating the actions of others, Christians must certainly be careful. In fact, the apostle John made this point quite strongly in his third epistle. He wrote: “Beloved, do not imitate what is evil, but what is good. He who does good is of God, but he who does evil has not seen God” (3 John 11). Let’s notice a few of the lessons contained in this important verse.

First, John’s admonition implies that we have a choice. Importantly, we have the ability to choose what we will imitate. In other words, God has given all of us the freedom to decide how we will act. If you desire, you can imitate what is good; if you wish, you can imitate what is evil. The choice is yours. God will not force you to behave in a particular manner.

Second, John’s admonition implies that we have the ability to know the difference between what is good and what is evil. Unlike many who claim that truth is relative, the word of God affirms that truth is absolute. That is why Jesus said: “And you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free” (John 8:32).

Third, John’s admonition implies that our choices are important. If you choose to imitate what is good, the world will know that you are “of God.” If you choose to imitate what is evil, it will be evident that you have not “seen God.” As Jesus said, you will be known by your fruits (Matthew 7:20). Are you imitating what is good?

—JUST FOR FUN—

Answer the following questions from Exodus 2:

1. Into what tribe was Moses born?
2. How long did his mother hide him?
3. After three months, what did she do with Moses?
4. Who watched Moses to see what would happen?
5. Who found Moses?
6. Who volunteered to find a nurse for Moses?
7. Who was found to nurse him?
8. What did Moses do when grown?
9. Where did he flee?
10. In verse 24, God heard the groaning of Israel. What did that cause Him to do?

Last week's answers: 1. Made them slaves with taskmasters, 2. Pithom and Raamses, 3. They multiplied and grew, 4. Told Midwives to kill any sons born, 5. Shiphrah and Puah, 6. No, 7. Israelite woman had children before they got there, 8. Multiplied, 9. Dealt well with them, 10. Told the people to cast the newborn sons into the river.
