

Epiphany of Our Lord

January 4, 2026 + 9:30 am

LUTHERAN CHURCH OF THE REDEEMER

The feast of Epiphany ("manifestation") concludes the Christmas season with a celebration of God's glory revealed in the person of Jesus Christ. In Isaiah and Ephesians, that glory is proclaimed for all nations and people. Like the light of the star that guided the magi to Jesus, the light of Christ reveals who we are: children of God who are claimed and washed in the waters of baptism. We are sent out to be beacons of the light of Christ, sharing the good news of God's love to all people.

GATHERING

The Holy Spirit calls us together as the people of God.

Epiphany Blessing of Our Worship Space

Matthew writes that when the magi saw the shining star stop overhead, they were filled with joy. "On entering the house, they saw the child with Mary his mother". In the home, Christ is met in family and friends, in visitors and strangers. In the home, faith is shared, nurtured, and put into action. In the home, Christ is welcome.

Twelfth Night (January 5), Epiphany of Our Lord (January 6), offers an occasion for gathering with friends and family members for a blessing for the home. Following an eastern European tradition, a visual blessing may be inscribed with white chalk above the main door. The three letters stand for either the ancient Latin blessing Christe mansionem benedicat, which means "Christ, bless this house," or the legendary names of the magi (Caspar, Melchior, and Balthasar).

Greeting

May peace be to this house and to all who enter here.

By wisdom a house is built and through understanding it is established;
through knowledge its rooms are filled with rare and beautiful treasures.

Reading

John 1:1-4, 14, 16

Inscription

The presiding minister asks for God's blessing upon this house of worship for the coming year.

The following inscription is made with chalk above the entrance: 20 + C M B + 26

Prayer of Blessing

O God, you revealed your Son to all people by the shining light of a star. We pray that you bless this home and all who live here with your gracious presence. May your love be our inspiration, your wisdom our guide, your truth our light, and your peace our benediction; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayer of the Day

Let us pray.

O God, on this day you revealed your Son to the nations by the leading of a star. Lead us now by faith to know your presence in our lives, and bring us at last to the full vision of your glory, through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

WORD

God speaks to us in scripture reading, preaching, and song.

First Reading

Isaiah 60:1-6

Jerusalem is assured that nations will make a pilgrimage to her because the light of God's presence is in her midst. The bountiful food of the sea and the profits of international trade will come streaming to Jerusalem and thereby declare God's praise.

Arise, shine, for your light has come, and the glory of the LORD has risen upon you.
2 For darkness shall cover the earth and thick darkness the peoples, but the LORD will arise upon you, and his glory will appear over you.
3 Nations shall come to your light and kings to the brightness of your dawn.
4 Lift up your eyes and look around; they all gather together; they come to you;
your sons shall come from far away, and your daughters shall be carried in their nurses' arms.
5 Then you shall see and be radiant; your heart shall thrill and rejoice, because the abundance of the sea shall be brought to you; the wealth of the nations shall come to you.
6 A multitude of camels shall cover you, the young camels of Midian and Ephah; all those from Sheba shall come. They shall bring gold and frankincense and shall proclaim the praise of the LORD.

*At the conclusion of the reading, the Assembly responds: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 72:1-7, 10-14

All kings shall bow down before him. (Ps. 72:11)

1 Give the king your justice, O God, and your righteousness to the king's son;
2 that he may rule your people righteously and the poor with justice;
3 that the mountains may bring prosperity to the people, and the hills, in righteousness.
4 Let him defend the needy among the people,
rescue the poor, and crush the oppressor.
5 May he live as long as the sun and moon endure,
from one generation to another.
6 Let him come down like rain upon the mown field,
like showers that water the earth.
7 In his time may the righteous flourish;
and let there be an abundance of peace till the moon shall be no more.
10 May the kings of Tarshish and of the isles pay tribute,
and the kings of Sheba and Seba offer gifts.
11 May all kings bow down before him, and all the nations do him service.
12 For the king delivers the poor who cry out in distress,
the oppressed, and those who have no helper.
13 He has compassion on the lowly and poor, and preserves the lives of the ne
14 From oppression and violence he redeems their lives, and precious is their blood in his sight.

Second Reading

Ephesians 3:1-12

What had been hidden from previous generations is now made known through the gospel ministry of Paul and others. In Christ both Jews and Gentiles participate in the richness of God's promised salvation.

This is the reason that I, Paul, am a prisoner for Christ Jesus for the sake of you gentiles,² for surely you have already heard of the commission of God's grace that was given me for you³ and how the mystery was made known to me by revelation, as I wrote above in a few words,⁴ a reading of which will enable you to perceive my understanding of the mystery of Christ.⁵ In former generations this mystery was not made known to humankind, as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit:⁶ that is, the gentiles have become fellow heirs, members of the same body, and sharers in the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel.

⁷ Of this gospel I have become a servant according to the gift of God's grace that was given me by the working of his power.⁸ Although I am the very least of all the saints, this grace was given to me to bring to the gentiles the news of the boundless riches of Christ⁹ and to make everyone see what is the plan of the mystery hidden for ages in God, who created all things,¹⁰ so that through the church the wisdom of God in its rich variety might now be made known to the rulers and authorities in the heavenly places.¹¹ This was in accordance with the eternal purpose that he has carried out in Christ Jesus our Lord,¹² in whom we have access in boldness and confidence through faith in him.

At the conclusion of the reading, the Assembly responds: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

The musical notation consists of four staves of music. The first staff begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one flat, and a common time signature. The lyrics are: "Al - le - lu - ia. Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the". The second staff begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one flat, and a common time signature. The lyrics are: "words of e - ter - nal life. Al - le - lu - ia." The third staff begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one flat, and a common time signature. The lyrics are: "Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia. Al - le - lu - ia." The fourth staff begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one flat, and a common time signature. The lyrics are: "Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia." The music is composed of eighth and sixteenth notes, with various rests and dynamic markings.

Gospel Announcement

The Holy Gospel according to Matthew.

Glory to you, O Lord.

Gospel

Matthew 2:1-12

God's promise shines bright in the night as magi follow a star to honor a new king. Strangers from a faraway land, they welcome the long-awaited messiah of Israel.

In the time of King Herod, after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, magi from the east came to Jerusalem,² asking, “Where is the child who has been born king of the Jews? For we observed his star in the east and have come to pay him homage.”³ When King Herod heard this, he was frightened, and all Jerusalem with him,⁴ and calling together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Messiah was to be born.⁵ They told him, “In Bethlehem of Judea, for so it has been written by the prophet:

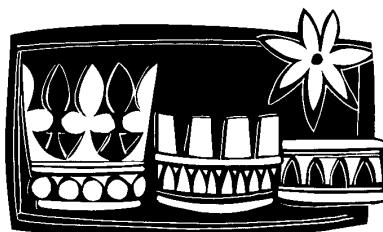

⁶ ‘And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah, for from you shall come a ruler who is to shepherd my people Israel.’ ”

⁷ Then Herod secretly called for the magi and learned from them the exact time when the star had appeared.⁸ Then he sent them to Bethlehem, saying, “Go and search diligently for the child, and when you have found him, bring me word so that I may also go and pay him homage.”⁹ When they had heard the king, they set out, and there, ahead of them, went the star that they had seen in the east, until it stopped over the place where the child was.¹⁰ When they saw that the star had stopped, they were overwhelmed with joy.¹¹ On entering the house, they saw the child with Mary his mother, and they knelt down and paid him homage. Then, opening their treasure chests, they offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.¹² And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they left for their own country by another road.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

Sermon

Hymn of the Day

"Jesus, the Light of the World" ACS #914

1 Hark! the herald angels sing, Jesus, the Light of the world;
2 Joy - ful, all you na - tions, rise; Jesus, the Light of the world;
3 Christ, by high - est heav'n a - dored, Jesus, the Light of the world;
4 Hail the heav'n-born Prince of peace! Jesus, the Light of the world;

"Glo - ry to the new-born king," Jesus, the Light of the world.
join the tri - umph of the skies; Jesus, the Light of the world.
Christ, the ev - er - last - ing Lord! Jesus, the Light of the world.
Hail the Sun of righ-teous - ness! Jesus, the Light of the world.

Refrain
We'll walk in the light, beau-ti-ful light, come where the dew-drops of mer-cy are bright.

Shine all a-round us by day and by night, Jesus, the Light of the world.

Text: Charles Wesley, 1707-1788, stanzas; George D. Elderkin, 1845-1928, refrain
Music: WE'LL WALK IN THE LIGHT, Traditional; arr. George D. Elderkin

Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary and became truly human.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father,
who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of Intercession

The Assisting Minister leads the prayers of the people for the church, the world, and all people in need. Each petition ends with:

Offering Song

The image shows the musical notation for the hymn "Joy to the World". It consists of four staves of music in G major, common time, with a treble clef. The lyrics are integrated into the music, appearing below each staff. The lyrics are: "3 So bring him in - cense, gold, and myrrh; come, peas - ant, king, to own him. The King of kings sal - va - tion brings; let lov - ing hearts en-throne him. Raise, raise the song on high, the vir - gin sings her lul - la - by; joy, joy, for Christ is born, the babe, the son of Mar - y!"

Text: William C. Dix, 1837-1898

Music: GREENSLEEVES, English ballad, 16th cent.

Offertory Prayer

Let us pray. God of glory, great are your wonders among us and many are the blessings you bestow.

Use us and these your gifts for the needs of the world, that all the ends of the earth may rejoice in your saving grace, through Christ our Savior. Amen.

Great Thanksgiving

The Lord be with you. And also with you.
Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is indeed right, our duty and our joy...
.... we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Ho-ly, ho-ly, Lord al-migh-ty, God of pow'r and God of might!
Heav'n and Earth re - veal your glo-ry, Hail, ho-san-na Lord of Light!
Bless-ed be the new - born Sa - vior, Hail, ho-san-na, Lord of Light!

*The Presiding Minister prays giving thanks to God, for God's saving work throughout history.
The Assembly responds when prompted:*

The earth is full of your glory
The earth is full of your glory. ...
Amen and amen.
Amen and Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Trusting in God's tender, motherly care, let us pray as Jesus taught us:

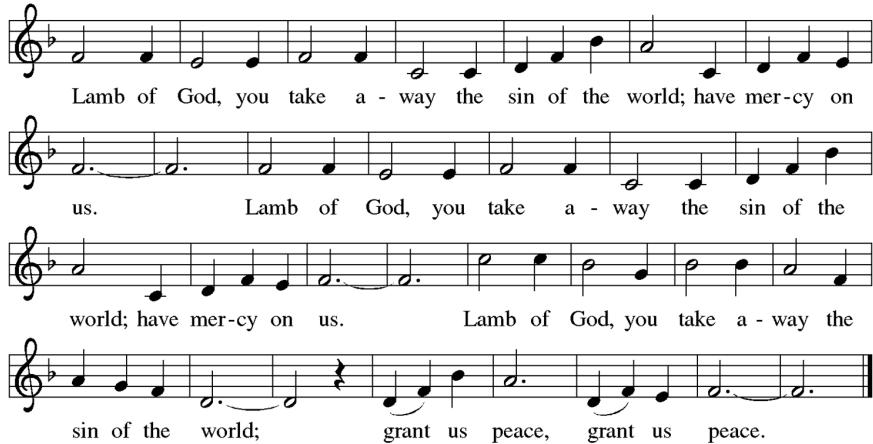

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

Invitation to Communion

God is now in flesh appearing. Come to the feast of joy!

Distribution of Communion

If you are worshipping with us at home, you are invited to partake in Communion as well! All you need is bread of any kind and wine or juice of any kind. As you receive the bread: 'This is the Body of Christ given for you.' As you receive the wine or juice: 'This is the Blood of Christ shed for you.' If you are worshipping with more than one person, please serve one another as you are able using the above words.

Lamb of God, you take a - way the sin of the world; have mer-cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a - way the sin of the world; have mer-cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a - way the sin of the world; grant us peace, grant us peace.
