OUT OF MY MIND:

"The Applause of Heaven"

We all enjoy applause; it's part of our genetic makeup. Whether it be on the athletic field, the stage, the classroom, or in the less obvious events of our lives; every one of us enjoys being recognized and praised. Our confidence is bolstered when a person of authority or someone we respect supports us and is clearly on our side. Getting that pat on the back or that word of encouragement makes us want to do better. We work harder. We take on problems with more determination and vigor. We are infused with "want to."

Scripture reminds us that God wants to be our biggest cheerleader...our biggest fan and greatest support. The Creator of the universe desires to support us, and support us strongly. He is simply looking for that person who will allow Him to be God. He wants all of our hearts - all the time - not just when we are in need or looking for help. And He is even looking for us. It's not a question of being found by God; God knows exactly where we are. It is a matter of completely giving our hearts to Him. When we let God be our support and foundation, we have all we need. God is always cheering us on!
