*UNISON PRAYER

God of compassion and wholeness, You call us to be a people who love, serve, and carry one another in faith. As we hear the story of the friends who would not give up until their loved one reached Jesus, stir in us that same joyful persistence. Remove whatever barriers keep us from Your healing grace: fear, doubt, stigma, indifference, or silence. Teach us to serve with joy, to walk beside those who are struggling, and to believe that new life is possible.

Make us a community where all are lifted, all are seen, and all are welcomed into Your presence. We pray in the name of Jesus Christ, who brings freedom, healing, and hope. Amen.

OLD TESTAMENT LESSON

Psalm 34:8 NRSVUE

Observe and see that the LORD is good; happy are those who take refuge in him.

NEW TESTAMENT LESSON

Mark 2:1-12 NRSVUE

When he returned to Capernaum after some days, it was reported that he was at home. So many gathered around that there was no longer room for them, not even in front of the door, and he was speaking the word to them. Then some people came, bringing to him a paralyzed man, carried by four of them. And when they could not bring him to Jesus because of the crowd, they removed the roof above him, and after having dug through it, they let down the mat on which the paralytic lay. When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralytic, "Child, your sins are forgiven." Now some of the scribes were sitting there questioning in their hearts, "Why does this fellow speak in this way? It is blasphemy! Who can forgive sins but God alone?" At once Jesus perceived in his spirit that they were discussing these questions among themselves, and he said to them, "Why do you raise such questions in your hearts? Which is easier: to say to the paralytic, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Stand up and take your mat and walk'? But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins"—he said to the paralytic—"I say to you, stand up, take your mat, and go to your home." And he stood up and immediately took the mat and went out before all of them, so that they were all amazed and glorified God, saying, "We have never seen anything like this!"

This is the Word of God for the people of God.

Thanks be to God!
